Medical Assistants

Harbor Area California Medical Assistants Association installed new officers at a dinner meeting at the Indian Village Tuesday evening. Shamrocks, white and green flowers were used as table decorations.

Mrs. Velma Tooley was installed as president of the local chapter of Medical Assistants. The new president took her nurses training in Omaha, Neb. and has been employed by Dr. Joseph I. Schultz in Torrance for the past five years. She has two children, a son and a daughter, and seven grandchildren.

Other newly-elected officers installed were Mmes. Keath Larsen, first vice-president; Mildred Alderson, second vice-president; Louise Lobin, treasurer; Shig Hirano, recording secretary; Joan Karsgor, corresponding secretary; and Mary Hokit, parliamentarian.

Dr. Schultz served as master of ceremonies and installing officer. He presented each new officer with a flower symbolic of her office.

Mrs. Mary Hokit, retiring president, was given a past presidents plaque with mounted gavel by Harvey Blakmar of the Doctors Business Bureau.

Mrs. Tooley was presented with a gold gavel necklace with embedded pearls, a gift from Dr. and Mrs. Schultz. The new president has held the offices of secretary and vice-president with the California Medical Assistants Association.

The 1968-69 advisors and their wives were honored guests. They are Drs. and Mmes. John Gunning, Roger Thill and Joseph Schultz. Dr. Stanley Stock of San Pedro was presented an engraved plaque in appreciation for his dedication and service to the Harbor Chapter of which he is a past advisor.

Other special guests of the new president attending include her husband, Merlin Tooley; Mrs. Eleanor Saum of Las Vegas; Mrs. Bonnie Morris, Inglewood; Mrs. Eloide Grubbs and daughter, Mrs. Gloria Fenter of Lomita.

Named Archdiocesan Outstanding Junior

At the close of the recent competition for the Outstanding Junior Catholic Daughter of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Mary Humting from Junior Court of Our Lady of Victory 1344, came in with the top honors.

Mary will represent Los Angeles in the coming state competition for California's Outstanding Junior, which will climax at the Juniors State Rally in Visalia on May 4 and 5. This award is based not only on the work done in the organization but also on participation in school, service clubs, parish and civic activities.

Mary, a Junior at Bishop Montgomery High School in Torrance, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicolas Humting of Redondo Beach. As national secretary of this large organization as well as California state president, she has held various offices on the court level. She helped to represent California at the National Junior Convention in Washington, D.C., with other delegates from the state.

As president of Court Our Lady of Victory Juniors, she has led this very active court through a busy year. Not only has the court collected and donated Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for the needy but they have also gained the reputation for being artistic in their unusual plans and work in decorating for the Archdiocesan Dances and Fashion Shows.

They have attended the annual Day of Recollection at Manresa Retreat House and have also, for a change of pace, chartered a bus to go to the mountains for a day in the snow. At the present, the girls are gathering food for Easter Baskets and have just completed a layette to be given to some new mother in need.

Second place winner in the Archdiocesan competition was Mickey Valente, Court St. Michael, a senior at St. Mary's High School; and third place, Barbara Weber of Court Holy Family, a senior at Pius X High School. Miss Weber is the president of the Juniors of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Members of Court Our Lady of Victory Juniors from Torrance, Redondo and Manhattan, are planning their trip to Visalia to the State Rally as well as elections and installation of officers in the near future.

For Headstart Children

As one of its philanthropies, Rho Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is donating two large sets of blocks to children attending the Headstart school in Wilmington. Two members, Mrs. Earl Williams, left, and Mrs. Dennis Eisenhut, show the blocks to Mrs. Eisenhut's son, Dennis, who adds another to the castle. Money used to purchase the blocks was raised through bridge parties, couples party, and the sale of Candy wreaths at Christmas time.
