Readings For 'Picnic' Scheduled

Readings for the Long Beach Community Players production "Picnic" by William Inge have been scheduled for next week.

The readings will be conducted by the director, Dan E. Baurac, at the Community Playhouse, 5021 E. Anaheim St., Long Beach tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

This is one of Inge's most famous plays and deals with the trials and tribulations of a Kansas family when a young drifter moves through their lives.

There are roles for four males ranging in ages from 17 to 50. There are seven female parts ranging in ages from 16 to 50.

Townsend Denies He's A Delegate

Assemblyman L. E. "Larry" Townsend, (D-67th District) today announced he is not a member of any state delegation to the Democratic national convention slated for Chicago in August.

He said a Southern California newspaper earlier this week reported the 67th District assemblyman was a member of the Senator Robert Kennedy delegation headed by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh.

Instrument Short Course Plans Told

An instrument short course will be held April 9 and 10 at Los Angeles Harbor College under the sponsorship of the Southern California Meter Association.

Area engineers, instrument technicians, students, and scientists are invited to attend the 17th annual event.

Registration cost is $3. Advance program may be obtained from Jack Cortelyou, Southern California Gas Co., P. O. Box 3249, Los Angeles, Calif. 90054.

Bay Students to Attend Disneyland Grad Night

Torrance area high schools will join with schools from all over California in staging their all-night graduation parties at Disneyland.

Torrance High, South High, and West High seniors will be among students heading for the Magic Kingdom on June 12. Redondo High School seniors will attend the party slated for June 13, and Carson and Narbonne High graduates will join in the fun on June 14.

Running from 11 p.m. to 5 a.m., the Disneyland parties are open only to graduating seniors and their dates from participating schools. Tickets, at $9 each, are sold through senior class representatives.

Students are required to travel by chartered bus and there must be one adult chaperone for every 20 students.

Dress will be coats and ties for the boys and party dresses for the girls. Skirts must be no more than three inches above the knee.

UCLA Plans Show Tune Festivities

Joan Rire of Torrance is appearing with her musical theater classmates in a show tune production in USLA's Schoenberk Hall.

Final grades for the UCLA extension workshop will be based on the students' performances in the production, slated to feature scenes from "The Music Man," "Hello Dolly," and other musicals.

The 13-week musical workshop began Thursday.

Nurses To Hold Seminar

Harbor area industrial nurses will attend a day-long symposium Saturday, April 6, to explore communication problems encountered by nurses in industry.

The fourth annual event, sponsored by the American Association of Industrial Nurses, will be held at the Long Beach Elk's Club, 4101 E. Willow St., Long Beach. All nurses working in industry, as well as persons employed in the management, medical, safety, or labor phases of industry, are welcome to attend.

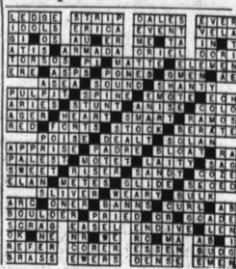

Communication problems in industry will be discussed by representatives from nursing, management, and insurance companies.

Rowena Bishop, R.N., M.S., associate director of nursing at City of Hope, will speak on "What Needs to be Communicated?"

"Methods of Communications: Bridges and Barriers" will be discussed by Madeline I. Fuchs, R.N., M.A., nursing instructor at UCLA.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Geraldine

Clark, R. N., Financial Secretary, 202 Seventh St., Seal Beach, Calif. 90740, on or before April 1.
