'Sound of Music' Opens Tomorrow

One of the most remarkable musicals of all time — Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Sound of Music" — will open tomorrow for a two-week run at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium. The show, which closes the Long Beach Civic Light Opera Association's 20th season, will feature Glenellen Cooper as Maria and Marvin Cloyd as Captain von Trapp.

Board Member Reappointed

Dr. E. V. Pullias has been re-appointed to the Los Angeles County Board of Education by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn. His new term is for four years. He served as the president of the board last year and was succeeded at that post by Rev. Dan Towler, Chaplain at Cal State Los Angeles.

Six evening and four matinee performances are scheduled during the two-week run. Matinees are scheduled at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, July 13 and 14, and 15, and July 18, 19, and 20. Evening performances, scheduled for 8:30 p.m. are Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, July 13, 14, and 15, and July 18, 19, and 20.

James Brittain, one of CLO's most talented craftsmen, will direct "Sound of Music." Cris Timmons is the choreographer and Jack Kroesen is the musical director.

Roles of the seven von Trapp children will be played by Kristine Olson (Louisa), Kimberly Benkey (Gretl), Jim Hansen (Frederick), Kathy McFadden (Lisel), Christina Sansome (Marta), Larry Pederson (Kurt), and Alyson Reed (Brigitta).

Others featured in the production include Pat Zieg as Frau Schroeder; Robert McCamm as Uncle Max; Ada Mow as the Mother Superior; and Chris Kroesen as Rolf.

Cloyd will be making his second appearance in a CLO production of "Sound of Music." He also played Captain von Trapp in the first production some five years ago.

Songs, in addition to the title tune, include "Sixteen, Going on Seventeen," "Climb Every Mountain," "Do Re Mi," "How Do You Solve a Problem Like Maria," "So Long, Farewell," and the lovely "Edelweiss."
