

Small Bank First With Free Checking Account

"And a little bank shall lead them" might be the proper heading for the rash of free checking accounts now being offered by banks in the Los Angeles area. Imperial Bank—with office in Los Angeles, Westchester, and Torrance—first offered the free checking account in 1963.

Imperial Bank, with assets under $50,000,000, ranks fifth in growth among the 313 chartered state and national banks founded throughout the USA in 1963. And, according to George L. Graziadio, president, it is the aggressive attitude symbolized by being first with free checking accounts that has contributed to such growth.

TODAY, nearly every major bank in the Los Angeles area has gone along in order to be competitive. Some tie the free personal checking account to a minimum balance of $500, some to $300, and some vary the charges accordingly.

Imperial requires only a $100 minimum. "The reason we did this," says Graziadio, "was to show the public that we are here to serve them and to give our customer every possible advantage."

"THE BANKING business is perhaps the toughest of all to try and achieve a difference in services and, as a new bank, this was very important to us, Graziadio said. "I think the young, small bank serves a very useful purpose and, in a way, keeps the larger bank on its toes. We have to give a little extra and through the workings of our competitive system, sooner or later others follow and the general public benefits."

What happens when everyone joins the parade? What do you do for an encore? Imperial Bank has become the first to offer "lifetime" free checking accounts which means the customer receives this service for life!

Scouts Visit Sequoia

Boy Scouts from Torrance Troop 851 have returned from a week-long expedition at Sequoia Park's Mineral King campground, where they made Indian bracelets and neckerchief slides, fished for brook trout, and observed wildlife.

An investiture ceremony for Tenderfoot Scout Jay Zucker culminated the adventure. Gathered around the campfire on the closing night of camp, the scouts highlighted the ceremony by burning an American flag no longer in condition to be used.

GUEST OF HONOR at the rites was comedian Pat Harrington Jr., who was vacationing with his family at Mineral King.

Scouts participating in the outing were Kevin Bailey, Bill Boxer, Alan Bush, Dan Heath, Ronald Kelly, Tim Kopaek, Brian McCarthy, Chuck McNett, Drew Siebert, Jeff Struble, Paul V. Struble III, Reed Vertelney, and Jay Zucker.

The boys were supervised by Camp Director Paul Struble Jr., Ken Bailey, Jack Huckestein, John Kopack, Larry Sinclair, and Senior Patrol Leader Leonard Molnar.

Writing Class To Be Offered

A class in creative writing will be offered by the South Bay Adult School beginning Tuesday, Sept. 17.

The class, which will meet from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at Redondo Union High School, will be taught by Steve McSweeney. It will meet once each week during the fall term.
