

Pretty As A Picture

Their purpose, as well as the event, will be "pretty as a picture" when the Victor Woman's Club stages its Fashion Show and Luncheon on Saturday, Oct. 12 at the Princess Louise. The event will benefit a handicapped seven-year-old boy. Club members, putting in hours preparing for the benefit, are in background, Mmes. Paul Green and Richard Young, finishing a painting, while in front, ticket sales are pushed by Mmes. John Reinhold and Mrs. Dan Saver, right, holding a roll of tickets as Mrs. Donald Tintle checks out membership list.

Victor Club Presents

Gala Fashion-Luncheon

Victor Woman's Club has opened its heart to a seven-year-old boy, partially blind, retarded, and with hearing difficulty.

This young boy will have his tuition paid at the Southwest Association for Mentally Retarded Children's Garden Valley Training Center as a result of the Victor Club's Fashion Show and Luncheon to be held Saturday Oct. 12 at the Princess Louise Restaurant in San Pedro. Money, in excess of the tuition, will also be donated to the Garden Valley Training Center, according to Mrs. Herbert Coe, president.

Fred Cooks Home From Hawaii Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook, 2207 Carson St. returned last Sunday from a three weeks vacation in Hawaii. During their stay the Cooks visited the outer islands.

The trip was a delayed celebration of the couple's 25th wedding anniversary which they observed this summer.

Mrs. Richard Young, ways and means chairman, is in charge of the show and luncheon and Mrs. Larry Lee is serving as fashion coordinator.

Centerpieces, which will be given as door prizes, are being made by Mrs. Norman

Low and her committee. A Torrance fashion salon will provide the new fall fashions and the models.

A social hour will begin at 11 a.m. followed by the luncheon and show at noon. Anyone wishing tickets or reservations may call Mrs. Donald Young or any member of the Victor Woman's Club.

Plans Bake Sale, Bazaar

Auxiliary to the Veterans of World War I Barracks 2615 will stage a bazaar and bake sale on Saturday, Oct. 5 at 13030 Hawthorne Blvd. Doors will open at 10 a.m. and many useful items as well as homebaked foods will be on sale.

The Auxiliary will hold its business meeting Oct. 3 at which the nominations and election of new officers will be held at the Hawthorne Memorial Center, 3901 El Segundo Blvd.

The Sewing Group will meet Oct. 9 at the home of Hattie Rice, 3761 W. 118th St., Hawthorne, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

A potluck dinner and social evening has been planned for Oct. 17 at 6:30 p.m. at the Center.

Rho Epsilon Meets Oct. 7

Mrs. Dennis Eisenhut of Torrance will entertain Rho Epsilon Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Monday evening, Oct. 7, at 8 p.m.

The program, "Your Poise and Charm" will be presented by Mrs. William Durant

Bioleckis Announce Linda's Engagement

At the Holy Spirit Chapel, Newman Center, Berkeley, on Oct. 26, Miss Linda Clarice Biolecki will become the bride of John Foster Hofer.

The announcement of their daughter's engagement and wedding plans is made today by Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Biolecki, 424 Avenida de Jose, Hollywood Riviera.

The news was first disclosed at a dinner at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house Sept. 16 at Berkeley.

Miss Biolecki, a 1965 graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School, is a senior at the University of California at Berkeley. She is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority and the Cal Club.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hofer, 32 Peninsula Rd., Belvedere, was graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in June, 1968. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and the Varsity Crew.

Mu Omicron Meets Today

The home of Mrs. Leo Pine of Torrance will present the cultural program "Self Estimate."

Mrs. Roger Horn, chapter president, congratulated the chapter on having been named a "Three Star Chapter."

Mrs. Pike was elected the chapter's candidate for "Queen of the Stardust Ball" to be held at Lococo's in February.

Festival Aids Master Chorale

Master Chorale Associates, Women's auxiliary helping support Roger Wagner's Los Angeles Master Chorale, is tuning up the Blarney Castle restaurant's parking lot, Western near Wilshire, for a Classic Car and Music Festival, Sunday, Oct. 6, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Chairman, Mrs. Rudy W. Cleve, some of the cars on exhibit will be Barney Oldfield's personal racing car, A. L. Bud Cohn's first production car in the world built in 1893, and famous racing cars from Indianapolis and European tracks.

A variety of gift items will be on sale at booths run by the seven area Committees of the Master Chorale Associates. The Palos Verdes booth will be taking Polaroid photographs, headed by local chairman Mrs. John Ellingwood of Palos Verdes.

Assisting her are Mmes Lawrence P. McNeil of Miralste, William Webster and F. Frankel of Palos Verdes. The Festival is open to the public.

Nancy Romero will reign as queen of the festival. Alan Fortney, prominent race announcer, will share Master of Ceremonies honors with radio personality, Carl Bailey and Marshall Rutter, member of Board of Directors

Car buffs can feast their eyes on 100 classic cars while being serenaded by groups of strolling singers from the Los Angeles Master Chorale. According to Festival
