South Side

By Lynne Alessio

South has been celebrating "Boost the Spirit" week since the defeat at Bishop Montgomery's field last Friday. The first pep assembly will be held today prior to the South-West football game.

With October here, campus clubs are finally into full swing. Traditional activities are already on the planning board, such as Capri and Bermuda Day sponsored by Girls' and Boys' Leagues.

The senior class is diligently planning Homecoming '68, this year entitled "Chanson Hier" (Song of Yesterday). The decorations will duplicate a French cafe scene. Invitations are being sent to all Spartan graduates of the past three years.

As a money raising activity, Seniors will sell green and white helium balloons at tonight's game. Having done it last year and finding it profitable, it was voted to give this activity another try. If this succeeds, plans will be made to sell them also at the Homecoming game.

Freshmen have elected Jim McDonald as president of the Class of '72.

Senior pictures are being taken now. Appointments are made according to alpha-

'Candidate' Paulsen To Speak

Comedian Pat Paulsen, in his own scheduled Southern California appearance prior to the presidential election, joins the pop-singing group The First Edition in an Oct.

17 program in the El Camino College Men's Gym at 8:30 p.m.

Paulsen, whose major breakthrough came in last fall's Smothers Brothers' Comedy Hour, has been hailed by critics as providing "some of the freshest comedy of the season." Paulsen is currently following a campaign trail of sorts as a tongue-in-cheek presidential candidate of the Straight-Talking American Government (STAG) Party.

Pat's sudden success has left him little time to pursue the activities that previously occupied him. Last year he made the national wire services when he was arrested in a Canadian city for dangling upside down while painting a city sidewalk with his beard.

Then there was the time he presented himself as a Yogi with the ability to walk on water. Before a curious crowd of 2,000 he turned out in turban and robes. He walked to the edge of the peir, raised his arms for silence, stepped off, and promptly sank out of sight.

Tickets are on sale in the ECC bookstore and at all Mutual Agencies
