

Fredericks Endorsed By Richard Howard

Fred Fredericks, Republican candidate in the 67th Assembly District has been endorsed by Richard E. Howard, deputy district attorney in Compton.

In making the announcement, Howard said, "Fredericks has spoken out vigorously against mollycoddling criminals and has promised legislation which will make our homes, businesses and street safe again. He is a stand-up-and-fight leader and I am behind him 100 per cent."

Speaking on Search and Seizure and the Maranda Decision, Howard said, "One small mistake on the trip through the legal maze can turn a guilty criminal loose. We need a legislator from this district who won't stand for this farce, and who will act, not just talk about crime. Fred Fredericks is that man."

Upon receiving the news of the endorsement, Fredericks said, "I am gratified and encouraged by Mr. Howard's support. I have long agreed with him that we need to take a stronger stand on crime."

"Where the law is violated and the offenders apprehended, the courts must punish swiftly and effectively. I will propose legislation which will increase the penalty for armed violators of the law, and life imprisonment for those convicted of three major felonies," Fredericks concluded.

Eagle Dinner Slated

"Oceanography — Frontiers Unlimited" will be the theme of the 24th annual Eagle Scout Recognition Dinner to be held tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. at the Hollywood Palladium.

Chairman Charles Dodson, senior vice president of the United California Bank, said that the evening will honor those young men who have reached scouting's highest rank of Eagle and leaders of business-industry who will host the Eagle Scouts at the dinner. Four hundred Eagle Scouts and an equal number of business - professional men will be in attendance.

Featured speaker of the evening will be Willard Bascom, president and chairman of Ocean Science and Engineering, Inc., of Washington, D. C. Bascom is best known for his work organizing and directing Phase I of the Mohole Project for the National Academy of Sciences 1959-1962 and as the author of two popular books "A Hole in the Bottom of the Sea," and "Waves and Beaches."

Marijuana Laws Topic For Panel

Conflicting views on marijuana—from the legal, medical and moral standpoints—will be presented in a community forum Friday at 8 p.m. at American Savings and Loan Building, 1959 Kingsdale Ave., Redondo Beach.

Taking part in the panel discussion will be Dr. James Nelson, assistant professor of neurology at UCLA School of Medicine and head of the Division of Neurology at Harbor General Hospital; Bruce Margolin, an attorney and chairman of CAMP (Committee Against Marijuana Prohibition); Allan Nelson, and attorney and chairman of a committee to study the legal status of marijuana for the American Civil Liberties Union; and a spokesman for the Peninsula Council for Youth, an organization of concerned parents to combat use of drugs and dangerous narcotics by young persons in the Palos Verdes area.

Woman Held in Shooting

Attempted murder charges have been lodged against a woman who allegedly shot her estranged husband Saturday.

Torrance police said Mrs. Paye Laura White, 47, of 15603 Firmona Ave., surrendered a .15-calibre automatic pistol when they arrived at the scene about 12:15 p.m.

Listed in satisfactory condition at Harbor General Hospital is Charles Henry White, 50, of 730 N. Inglewood Ave., Inglewood. Police found White collapsed against an apartment door at 1801 1/2 Cabrillo Ave., bleeding from bullet wounds in his chest and thigh.

The suspect, Mrs. White, said she had been staying with a friend, Mrs. Lule Edna Lowrey, at the Cabrillo Avenue address. She explained that she became alarmed when her estranged husband came to the apartment to see her. Mrs. White reportedly confessed firing the gun twice as the victim walked down the hall toward her, police said.

Mrs. Lowrey, who was in the kitchen at the time of the shooting, told police she had been talking to White in the kitchen for about 10 minutes before he walked out into the hall. The witness summoned police when she heard the shots.

Art Exhibition

A Torrance artist, Carol Ann Sauer, has entered the Ventura County Forum of the Arts third exhibition and competition.

Photography Club Offers Activities to Students

Activities and opportunities in photography at El Camino College are being emphasized by the El Camino Camera Club which officially began its fall program at its meeting last Tuesday.

"The club is designed for all interested students, not just photo majors," Rick Burow, president, stated. "However, the club is not just a closed campus organization. Non-students are also invited to attend lectures and field trips. Nonetheless, the on-campus meetings are open only to EC students," Burow explained.

As a club, the group plans to become affiliated with both the Southern California Council of Camera Clubs and the Photographic Society of America.

"By becoming affiliated with these two organizations, we have the opportunity to secure top-name lecturers, movies, and slide shows. Also members will be afforded the opportunity to enter many national print competitions," Burow explained.

The club is led this semester by a three-membered staff of elected officers, including Burow, president; Mike Fitch, vice president; and secretary-treasurer, Carleen Grube.

Burow and Fitch are sophomores majoring in photography. Miss Grube, a freshman, is a journalism major.

The club is under the sponsorship of Merrill Jones, a photo instructor and advisor of Warrior Life, EC's campus magazine.

More than 25 interested students have already applied for membership. This is the largest turn-out since the conception of the club last year.

Many activities will be planned this semester, including several photo shooting sessions, field trips, lectures and demonstrations.
