Architectural Awards Slated

Owners of eleven outstanding commercial, industrial and professional buildings in Torrance will be honored at a special Torrance Area Chamber of Commerce architectural merit awards luncheon Thursday, Nov. 4, it was announced today by President George M. Ebert.

Conducting the program will be William R. Burchfield, chairman of the Architectural Awards Committee. Robert L. Curry, chairman of the Awards Committee, will make the presentations.

Featured speaker for the event will be Ki Suh Park, vice president of Victor Gruen Associates of Los Angeles. Park, a noted architect and city planner, will speak on "Community Planning — Its Problems and Challenges."

THE NAMES of winners of the chamber's seventh annual merit awards will not be disclosed until presentations are made at the noon luncheon to be held at the Plush Horse Restaurant, 1700 S. Pacific Coast Hwy., Redondo Beach.

Burchfield, a Torrance architect, in describing the awards event said, "The motivation behind these awards is to stimulate the community to improve itself architecturally and make Torrance a better city."

Children from Torrance's parks and playgrounds have been busy this week painting ghosts and goblins on the windows of local business firms.

As part of the annual Halloween Window Painting program, children and teenagers have been visiting shopping centers throughout the city, creating their own Halloween art designs on store windows.

A small program last year, Halloween Window Painting program has enlarged this year due to the rising interest of children and of local merchants.

Children from McMaster, Victor, and Walteria Parks participated in the event.

Prizes for the most original design will be awarded by the Torrance Recreation Department. In addition, merchants will provide extra prizes to the winners.
