

They Gotta Be Winners

Trophies, pet food, and other prizes await the winners in the citywide Children's Pet Fair when final judging takes place tomorrow at Torrance Park. The Recreation Dept., assisted by the Junior Woman's Club, is staging the competition. Two sure winners, at least that's their owners' opinion, are displayed by Kathy Kramer 12, holding her pet cat, known as "Dog," Mrs. Al Bishop, a judge, showing the ribbons, and Richard Kramer 9, with his dog, Penny.

Pet Fair Judging Slated Tomorrow

Final judging in the citywide Children's Pet Fair will take place tomorrow, at 1 p.m. at Torrance Park.

Children, who have won first and second place awards in preliminary park competitions, will bring their pets to show before professional judges, assisted by members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club. The Torrance Juniors co-sponsor this event with the Torrance Recreation Department.

Trophies will be awarded the winners, as well as pet food and other prizes.

The Highland Hi Lites, led by J. W. Means III, will present a dog obedience demonstration, and two teams of six dogs and handlers will race in a sit-retrieve contest.

Mrs. Bruce Wilkinson, youth chairman of the Torrance Juniors, is directing the contest, assisted by Mmes. Alex Bishop, Darrell Lanham, LeRoy Lindsay, James Sweetly, Jack Hughes, James Griffith, and many amateur but enthusiastic junior judges.
