

Benjestorfs Observe ORT Group Plans Golden Wedding Day Chanukah Event

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Benjestorf, 2103 Arlington Ave., who have lived in the Torrance area since 1921, were honored at an Open House on Saturday, Nov. 23 at the First Baptist Church social hall in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The social hall, at 2118 W. Carson, was festive in a gold and white anniversary theme. The table was centered by a gold tiered anniversary cake, which was served with other refreshments by the couple's daughters-in-law, Mrs. Eugene Benjestorf and Mrs. Stanley Benjestorf.

On hand for the celebration were the couple's four children, Stanley and Eugene Benjestorf; Mrs. Shirley Young and Mrs. Winona Rodriguez. Adding to the joyous occasion was the presence of eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Approximately 75 friends and relatives attended to congratulate the couple, who also received many telegrams and cards from friends and relatives in England and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjestorf were married Nov. 27, 1918, in England, coming immediately to Canada where they lived for two years before moving to the harbor area.

Mr. Benjestorf was a longshoreman, retiring six years ago.

He and Mrs. Benjestorf are both charter members of the San Pedro Eagles Lodge.

Palos Verdes Chapter of Women's American ORT is busy making plans for their Chanukah Luncheon to be held on Monday, Dec. 16 at 11:30 a.m. at the Torrance Recreational Center, 3341 W. Torrance Blvd., Torrance.

ORT is a world-wide organization dedicated to the building and re-building of lives through the medium of vocational training. Its basic belief is that a man is best helped by being enabled, through the acquisition of a modern skill, to help himself.

Mrs. Milton Birnbaum, chairman, and her committee, are busy at work making table decorations and room decorations in the Chanukah theme, arranging for door prizes, and putting the finishing touches on a superb menu.

Members, their relatives and friends have set aside Monday, Dec. 16, on their calendars as a day of fun, food and a chance to win loads of prizes.

For further information and reservations, Mrs. Milton Birnbaum may be contacted.

Harbor Area United Crusade

Cites Local Women for Service

Four Torrance women, Mmes. Lars Holt, Kenneth Uyeda, Harold Moore, and Betty O'Raidy, were honored at the United Crusade residential report luncheon at Los Verdes Country Club, Thursday Nov. 14.

Mrs. Holt is in charge of the entire door-to-door campaign in Torrance. Mrs. Uyeda is group chairman for North Torrance; Mrs. Moore, for Central Torrance; and Mrs. O'Raidy, South Torrance.

In addition, the three women were given bouquets of orange carnations, which they in turn presented to the section leaders, who are working with them in the Crusade.

Volunteers from the communities of San Pedro, Carson, Wilmington, Harbor City, Lomita, Gardena, Palos Verdes, and Rolling Hills were present, in addition to those from Torrance.

Of the countywide goal of $28,200,000, over $13,338,539 has been raised, which is 47.3% of the goal. In the Harbor area, with a $176,100 goal to be raised by local volunteers, $64,372, or 36.5% of the goal is already in.

Special guests at the luncheon were Susan Shultz, who won a 1968 Gold Key Youth Leadership award for her outstanding service as a USO volunteer; Mrs. Leo Polakoff, chairman of the United Crusade Women's Campaign; and Mrs. Jack McFarland, United Crusade chairman for 10th District PTA.

Each received a special United Crusade cookbook in recognition of her efforts in the fundraising drive thus far. Mrs. O'Raidy was unable to attend the luncheon.

Mrs. Robert L. Jacobs, Harbor area residential chairman, presented the books. Mrs. Jacobs, also a Torrance resident, is a Camp Fire Girls Guardian.

Entertainment for the buffet luncheon was provided by comedienne Angie Papadakis and the El Camino College mixed chorale.

Robert L. Sprague, treasury manager for Shell Oil Company and campaign chairman for the Harbor area United Crusade, gave a short report on the progress of the drive on the county level and in the Harbor area.
