

Aliens Must Give Report Of Address in January

George K. Rosenberg, district director of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Services, estimated today that more than half a million aliens residing in Southern California will report their addresses during January under the Alien Address Report Program. Rosenberg said that non-citizens are required to file the Special Address Report Card each January. In addition, aliens who are temporarily out of the United States during January must report their address to the Service within 10 days after their return. The District Director said that Address Report Cards will be available at the Immigration Service office at 300 No. Los Angeles St., Los Angeles, or any Immigration office, and also at all local United States Post Offices beginning tomorrow.

Watch How Low You're Stooping

As cars get closer to the ground, it becomes more difficult for you to crouch, slide and untangle yourself. In fact, too many of you don't stop to think how you look getting into or out of that car. Once the door is opened, you aim for it like a coal miner diving into an excavation. Everything you have shakes, rattles and rolls in that desperate lunge. Does your Beast smile with pride at your grace, or does he have to restrain the urge to let go with a flying kick? Getting in and out of an automobile properly requires concentration. When he is alone, never, never open the door yourself. When he opens the door, get into the car by sitting carefully. Don't plop and grunt. Sit sideways, feet out of the car but stretched out. Gracefully and casually swing your legs into position. A little kneecap showing won't hurt a bit and can hardly be avoided with today's styles. But don't get so anxious that the skirts roll up around the waist. When getting out of the car, use the same technique in reverse. Again, he opens the door for you. When he opens the door, he reaches in for your hand. This is just a knightly gesture, not something to hang onto while he tugs and pulls you from the car. Swing your legs around first, putting one foot firmly on the ground for leverage. Rise gracefully, lightly leaning on his hand. With practice, you can look like a queen when you alight from your royal chariot.

Distribute Packages

Twenty-one students from Shery High School distributed Christmas stockings to 60 Head Start youngsters in Lawndale last week. Stockings, made by the students, were stuffed with candy, tangerines, and homemade apple cookies. The project was the outgrowth of a psychology class discussion. Students hosted Christmas parties at four Head Start centers. Santa Claus visited each center and his assistants led the youngsters in Christmas games and singing of Christmas carols. Mike Pope stood in for Santa. Assisting him were: Thomas Baccani, Jackie Brown, Joseph Cottrell, Steve Devitt, Jack Gist, Wayne Kane, Norman Latorse, Melinda McComb, Adonica McHugh, Gino Matrona, Mike Mickey, Gerry Nyhus, Tim Nyhus, Alan Otto, Carol Romo, Laurel Smuland, Debbie Tomblin, Lance Ucci, Robert David-alter, and Sue Wilson. Helping students coordinate plans were instructors Kenneth Hill and Richard Cone.
