

Three-Car Collision Logged

A Torrance man suffered broken teeth, chest injuries, and lip lacerations Saturday night when the car he was driving collided with a car at the corner of Anza Avenue and Halison Street.

Taken to Little Company of Mary Hospital for treatment was Gary Lee Ingram, 28, of 21029 Ladeene Ave.

Driver of the second car was Robert D. Story, 29, of 2639 W. Artesia Blvd., whose car was stopped for a traffic sign in northbound lanes on Anza Avenue when the collision occurred. Story's car sustained total rear end damage and his wife Sharyl, 25, suffered a large bump over her right eye.

Also involved in the mishap was a car driven by Lawrence M. Maxwell, 37, of Playa del Rey.

Police have ordered an investigation of the accident. They will seek a hit-run complaint against Ingram. He is suspected of misdemeanor hit-run violations in connection with several parked cars damaged just prior to the collision.

Players To Stage Shaw Play

The TRW Satellite Players have announced the cast for their current production of George Bernard Shaw's comedy, "Major Barbara," opening their second season.

Featured in the cast are Sally Conrad, Edie Dransfield, Bob Hansen and Gene Warech. Also in the cast are Lee Buck, Robert Connor, Dave Draper, Robi Rakes, Frank Scott and Janet Williams. Phil Persons directs.

Scintillating Shaw at his best, "Major Barbara" will open a three-week engagement Jan. 31 at the Hawthorne High School Theatre, El Segundo and Inglewood Boulevards.

Coin Club Will Hold Session

Members of the Torrance Coin Club will hold a meeting Tuesday, Jan. 21, in the recreation building at Waleria Park, 3855 W. 242nd St. The session is scheduled for 8 p.m.

The club, organized several years, at one time counted more than 300 members. Tuesday's meeting will mark the beginning of a new drive to increase membership and re-activate the club.

New directors will be installed during Tuesday's session, according to M. L. McClaffin, president of the group.

Former members of the club are especially invited to Tuesday's meeting. Lloyd Hill, a director, said.

Waleria Park is located about two blocks west of Hawthorne Boulevard just south of Pacific Coast Highway.

Hit-Run Charges Lodged

Felony hit-run charges were lodged against a Redondo Beach man Saturday afternoon after his car allegedly collided with another vehicle on Western Avenue near 190th Street and continued on without stopping.

Picked up a short time later at a local bar was Leo N. Neuenswander, 46, of 2400 Vanderbilt Lane, Apt. A, Redondo Beach.

The second vehicle, driven by Pauline Barrera, 31, of 1424 Broad Ave., Wilmington, collided with the Neuenswander car while exiting the Harvey Aluminum Co. parking lot. Mrs. Barrera was treated at Harbor General Hospital for a forehead laceration. Her car sustained major damage.

Two Films To Screen On Friday

"Operation Abolition," a 45-minute film which depicts student protests against the House Committee on Un-American Activities, will be shown free Friday at 8 p.m. by the South Bay Film Forum.

The film will be shown at the American Opinion Library, 1532 W. Carson St.
