

Wet Brakes Slip; Cause Collision

A Lomita man and his wife were hospitalized late Saturday after wet brakes apparently caused their car to plow into two parked vehicles.

Police said Jack M. Love, 35, of 2334 W. 241st St., was driving south on Engracia Avenue near Arlington Avenue when he slammed on the brakes to avoid hitting another car. The wet brakes apparently caused Love's car to veer to the left, plunging it into the parked cars.

Love and his wife, Lela, were treated at Harbor General Hospital for cuts and abrasions. Their car sustained total front end damage.
