Lasuen Invades Bishop

Fermin Lasuen, co-leader with Serra in the Camino Real League, is flirting with trouble tonight by taking on Bishop Montgomery in a Camino Real League game.

It's the start of the second round and the Knights have only a 2-5 record to show for their league campaign.

The record of Montgomery does not show how they lost to Lasuen by one point and to four other teams by margins of around four points.

Greg Collins of the Knights is one of the best players in the league and is a threat to lead his team out of the second division in the second half.

The game tonight will be at Bishop Montgomery High.

In the other games around the league Serra takes on St. Monica's in the most crucial contest.

The Sky League will pit Torrance against Leuzinger, Rolling Hills against Morningside, and Culver City at Palos Verdes.

Morningside (3-0) has a game lead over Torrance (2-1) and Rolling Hills (2-1).

Saturday's Game
North at West 12 a.m.

ANOTHER SANDY... Tom Sandowich, letterman basketball player for West High, will be in the lineup tomorrow when the North High-West High Bay League game goes on television on Channel 4. A fellow named Sandy Koufax will be mikeside for the commentary.

North-West Game on TV

The Bay League basketball game, originally scheduled tonight between North High and West High, has been moved to Saturday noon for live coverage on KNBC Television. The station is presenting high school basketball on a weekly basis. The play-by-play will be handled by Ross Porter with Sandy Koufax offering the commentary.

North High will go into the game with a 7-0 record in the Bay League. West, having a stormy time in close games, has a 3-4 record.

West lost a 58-57 game to Redondo Wednesday while North handed Santa Monica its seventh loss in a row, 73-62.

Another member of the league went tumbling out of the championship race when Hawthorne was upset by Inglewood, 57-52. Hawthorne had been tied for second with Redondo, but the Seahawks (5-2) stand just about the only chance of catching North.

South (4-3) won a 70-56 verdict from Mira Costa as Dennis Rector scored 22 points.

The Spartans had too much height for Mira Costa and won the game on the board.

The smallest player on the court, Robbie Fowler, scored 21 points for Redondo to offset 19 by big Bill Kolodziejczak of West.

Bruce Gerhardt scored two free throws in the final seconds to take a one-point lead and it was all over after West lost the ball out of bounds.

Dan Anderson of North scored 10 points in the first quarter and had 20 for the game against Samohi.

Anderson is an outstanding all-around basketball player and should catch the eye of the public on television. Around 6-1, Dan has been a regular for the Saxons for three years and is trying to make it three Bay League championships in a row.

Coach Russ Bierley of North also has a well balanced squad with Art Frasier, Jim Thomas, Harlan Peet, Jim Jones and Steve Ton in the lineup.

Kolodziejczak is a 6-4 letterman sophomore for West. The Warriors are building as the powerhouse of 1970 with Hal Smalley, Carl Moberly, Gary Blair, Mike Neal, Jack Area and Wayne Blackburn gaining experience.

The senior leaders are Tom Sandowich and Joe Thomas.

NBC's Sandy Koufax, the great pitcher of no-hit fame for the Dodgers, was a high school basketball whiz before he signed a baseball contract with the Dodgers.

His broadcasting sidekick Ross Porter has been doing play-by-play of basketball since the age of 14.

Televising of games will last through the CIF championship playoffs.

TWO ROUGH GAMES FOR CERRITOS

Cerritos College places its 22-game court winning streak on the line against Pierce College Friday night and the powerful Pasadena Lancers Saturday night.

The Falcons have not been defeated on their home court since Jan. 6, 1967.

Cerritos is defending state and Metropolitan Conference champs.

Rams Dwell On Passing

The Rams made history when they didn't go for a quarterback the first day of the NFL-AFL draft, but they made up for it Wednesday when they plucked a pair.

On the 12th round they picked C. W. Post passer Tim Carr. The 6-2, 220-pounder ranked second in the NCAA small college ratings last season, completing 57 per cent of his attempts. C. W. Post College is a branch of Long Island University in Brookville, N.Y.

After tabbing defensive back Roger Williams of Grambling (no relation to the pianist) on the 13th round, the Rams drafted Ray Stephens, brother of Minnesota's former Rose Bowl star Sandy Stephens. Ray, 6-4, 215, was a reserve quarterback with the Gophers last season, but the Rams will try him at running back.

The Rams saved the best for last when they dipped into the collegians' bags' of goodies and came up with Jim Thorpe, a flanker from Hofstra University in Hempstead, L.I., N.Y.

If Thorpe, 6-0, 195, turns out to be a "sleeper" the Rams will have a fast one. He's run the 100-yard dash in 9.6 and the 40 in 4.5.

And if the Hofstra flash has half the talent of a certain Sac and Fox Indian from Oklahoma, the Rams should cause some hullabaloo when they introduce Jim Thorpe to Coliseum fans next season.

The Rams first round selections included a running back Larry Smith of Florida, split end Jim Seymour of Notre Dame, and tight end Bob Klein of USC.

John Zook, A. Z. Drones, Pat Curran, and Jim Hawkins were picked on the first day.

With few big names left at the outset of the final 10 rounds Wednesday, the Rams selected Richard Harvey, 6-2, 190, a cornerback from Jackson State on the 8th round.

On the 9th round, the Rams' talent scouts grabbed Mike Foote, 6-2, 220 linebacker from Oregon State. The three-year regular scored on a 40-yard interception against UCLA last season.

Jerry Gordon, Auburn's 6-5, 235-pound offensive tackle, was taken on the 10th round. Dave Svendsen, 6-2, 187, who caught 115 passes in his junior-senior season at Eastern Washington, was L.A.'s 11th-round pick.

The Rams tapped the northwest again on the 15th round when they took George Jugum, 6-1, 235 linebacker from Washington. Henry Hipps, 6-4, 225 linebacker from North Carolina A & T, was the next to last pick.

Ram draftees are:
Richard Harvey, Jackson State defensive back.
Mike Foote, Oregon State, linebacker.
Jerry Gordon, Auburn, offensive tackle.
Dave Svendsen, Eastern Washington, flanker.
Tim Carr, C. W. Post, quarterback.
Roger Williams, Grambling, defensive back.
Ray Stephens, Minnesota, quarterback.
George Jugum, Washington, linebacker.
Henry Hipps, North Carolina A & T, linebacker.
Jim Thorpe, Hofstra, flanker.
Larry Smith, Florida, running back.
Jim Seymour, Notre Dame, split end.
Bob Klein, USC, tight end.
John Zook, Kansas, defensive end.
A. Z. Drones, West Texas St., tackle.
Pat Curran, Lakeland, linebacker.
Jim Hawkins, Nebraska, defensive back.

Same 44 Ready at Riverside

None of the starting 44 drivers in the twice rain-delayed Motor Trend-Riverside 500 has departed from the event. They will be on hand Saturday at 11 a.m. when the race is run.

Considered by many the finest field of stock car racers ever assembled, the 500-mile race lists such standouts as A. J. Foyt, David Pearson, Mario Andretti, Dan Gurney, Cale Yarborough, Lee Roy Yarborough, Parnelli Jones, Richard Petty, Al Unser, Bobby Isaac, James Hylton and 33 other top rated drivers.

The two stock car racing champions, A. J. Foyt (USAC) and David Pearson (NASCAR) may have benefitted by the delays.

Foyt was ill with the flu the first weekend the race was delayed, running a 104 temperature and suffering a reaction to a flu shot. Pearson came down with a mysterious bloody nose malady at his home in Spartanburg, S.C., over the last weekend.

Both champions are now in good health and appear certain for Saturday's race.

Each is rated a good chance for the biggest slice of the $100,500 in prize money; which makes the "500" one of the six richest auto racing events in the world.

Bruins Play Two Pac-8 Opponents

"It was obvious, but understandable, that our players were not up for the non-conference opponents of last weekend but I fully expect them to be ready when we resume Pacific-8 action against California and Stanford."

That's how UCLA coach John Wooden spoke of the Bruins' somewhat unimpressive victories over Northwestern (81-67) and Loyola of Chicago (84-65) in Chicago last weekend. But, as he said, he expects the Bruins to be really ready to operate in top form against the Bears and Indians in Pauley Pavilion tonight and tomorrow.

California comes to town with a powerful team boasting a 10-4 overall record and a 2-1 mark in conference play. The Bears are headed by a super soph forward, Jackie Riddle, who is averaging 20 points a game, and veteran 6-11 center Bob Presley, a real good one.

Stanford's record isn't so impressive, 5-10 overall and 0-3 in league action, but the Indians are improving steadily and can't be taken lightly. They have one of the Pacific-8's great guards in senior Don Griffin, averaging 22 points a game.

The Renault 16 hidden trunk trick.

SEDAN WITH 12.6 CU. FT. TRUNK 42 CU. FT. STATION WAGON

If you've ever owned a station wagon you know there's no way to carry anything in one without letting the whole world know about it. Including the underworld.

But the Renault 16 Sedan-Wagon took care of that with one neat trick. A hidden trunk.

When it's a sedan, it's got a hidden trunk behind the back seat big enough to carry about 9 suitcases. In secret. (When it's a station wagon it's got up to 42 cubic feet of hauling space.)

And it takes care of a few other
