

Children Singers Open Membership for Period

Bravo Children Singers, a group of boys and girls, between 7½ and 13 years of age, with a great desire to sing for a worthy cause, is enlarging membership during the months of February and March.

This chorus is directed by Mrs. Glen Holzhausen, popular soprano in the area, with pianist Laura Lemisch, 15, an accomplished artist in her own right. The group meets weekly in Hollywood Riviera for a three month session from March through May.

This is a non-profit group with mothers volunteering their services where needed for transportation, telephoning, typing, publicity, etc.

The community evidenced its desire for a singing group of this kind during the holidays when the Bravos were invited to perform for the Daughters of the American Revolution Christmas program; AAUW Christmas Tea; the Christmas Show at the Seaman's Institute in San Pedro; program for a local church luncheon; and a performance at the Hollywood Riviera Homeowners Christmas Party.

The Bravos visit the local convalescent hospitals and retirement homes regularly.

The purpose of the group is not only to learn to sing and gain poise and confidence but to have the fun of performing.

Parents of talented children between 8 and 13 years are invited to call Mrs. Glen Holzhausen for further information.

Ball-Bailey Vows Read In Presbyterian Rites

Miss Jennifer Lynn Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terrence Ball, 1029 Greenhedge St., Torrance became the bride of Marc H. Bailey in an afternoon ceremony on Jan. 4 at the First Presbyterian Church in San Pedro. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bailey, Eshelman Ave., Lomita, are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of lace and organdy. The bodice and long sleeves were of lace and the full skirt of organdy was over satin. The gown was fashioned with a watteau organdy train. A tiara held her shoulder length veil and she carried a bouquet of roses, carnations and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was an antique cameo necklace, belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Wesley Utterback of Ohio, who with Mr. Utterback, was here for the wedding.

Miss Jacqueline Chaddock, gowned in pink lace and crepe and carrying pink carnations, was the maid of honor. Sean McDaniel stood as best man and ushers were Patrick and Bradley Ball.

Rev. Richard Rubottom officiated at the vow exchange as Mrs. Dorothy Searcy played the nuptial music.

A reception was held for the 75 guests in the Fireside Room at the church after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Monterey. They are employed at the South Bay now at home at 2208 Cabrillo, Credit Bureau in Torrance.

Mr. Bailey is a film editor for the Torrance Unified School District. Both graduates of Narbonne High School, Mrs. Bailey is

Leadership Training Classes Set

A dynamic class in Leadership Training through effective speaking, memory boosters, right dress and the improvement of human relations is offered for the spring semester by the Torrance Adult Education Dept. Monday evening from 6:45 to 9:45 p.m. The classes meet in room 4, South High School.

Classes which offer an opportunity to build a positive image for personal effectiveness are instructed by Miss Mary Deseree and offer a vital success program for the climbing executive or any man or woman interested in on-the-job, social or home relationship skills.

Students may register with the instructor at the time the class meets. There is a small registration fee and several openings are now available.

Job advancements, happier living are the direct and certain results of these classes, according to Miss Deseree.

Any way you figure it...
