

PAT O'BRIEN
To Receive Award

Actor Pat O'Brien To Get Eagle Honor

Pat O'Brien, famed Irish movie star, will be the recipient of the second annual Humanitarian Award of the Redondo Beach Aerie 933 of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles.

President Leonard Longaker said O'Brien will personally receive the award at ceremonies at the Lodge, 128 S. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, Sunday, March 16. An informal reception will be held at 2 p.m., followed by the traditional Irish "turkey" dinner (corned beef and cabbage) at 3 p.m.

Johnny Longdon, the world's top rated jockey, recently retired, also is expected to attend. Longdon was the first winner of the Humanitarian Award in 1968.

ALL PROCEEDS from the affair will be donated to the Jimmy Durante Fund for Retarded Children, according to chairman George Mitchell. Western Area chairman Ray Graves of Redondo Beach said some $300,000 was raised in funds the first year of operation. Joe Rudolovich and his band will follow dinner.

Master of Ceremonies will be Robert Romano, nephew of Jimmy Durante, according to Lodge secretary Ed Conrad, who is co-chairman of the dinner.

Honored guests include Mayor William F. Czuleger and Chamber Manager Dick Fitzgerald and their wives.

RESERVATIONS are available at the Eagles Lodge, officials said.

O'Brien, 70-year-old Milwaukee-born Irishman, is a graduate of Wisconsin's Marquette University but is probably best known for his role as Knute Rockne, immortal Notre Dame football coach.

He was named for the honor, Eagle officials said, because of his efforts during the past 40 years in helping others. He has headed numerous charity and war bond drives and has always been a favorite with military men in overseas visitations.

Trio Earns 'Parnelli' Trophies

Three employees of Vel's-Parnelli Jones Ford have earned "Parnelli" awards for "outstanding Achievement in Human Relations" during February.

Adam Keller of the sales department, Robert L. Cook of the service department, and Muriel Jalbert of the office staff were selected by their fellow employees to receive the awards on the basis of displaying the greatest courtesy and cooperation to customers and colleagues.

Each of the winners received a "Parnelli" trophy and their names have been inscribed on a large trophy that is permanently on display at the dealership.

The three February winners are now eligible for quarterly prizes such as free trips, clothing, cash awards, etc.

Vel's-Parnelli Jones Ford is located at 20900 Hawthorne Blvd.
