

Elks Lodge Sets Party For Sunday

Harbor area and Peninsula Elks will be wearing shamrocks and tossing a bit of blarney at their St. Patrick's Family Day party Sunday at lodge 966, 1748 Cumbre Avenue, San Pedro.

Chef John Bongiovanni will serve an Irish turkey dinner (corned beef and cabbage) from 1 until 8 p.m.

Co-chairmen Eugene Powell and Dr. Andrew DePaolo have planned a continuous round of movies for little lads and colleens in the circular lodge auditorium. Dancetime for the entire family will begin at 6 with the orchestra playing nostalgic Irish music.

Guests will be met at the door by smiling Irishmen, Leonard Oliveri, Charles Alesso, John Hall, Charles Henderson, John Craig, Jay Finney, Eugene Reynolds, Charles Kekich, Anthony Tomich, Bjorne Bolstad, Robert Smith and Benjamin Reynolds. Head greeter Oliveri stated, "We also take turn about supervising our young movie audience."

Manning the movie projector and sound equipment will be Robert Baumgart assisted by Richard McHale, Benton Roberts, Peter Marcianti, Barney Kusnerak, George Mason, Joseph Nocetti, Donald Fink, Leonard Cuccia and Hofton Ballou.

Parking facilities will be managed by youth activities director Richard DeLong and Explorer scouts from Post 949X.

More Bonds To Be Sold By County

County supervisors have authorized sale of another $5 million in 1964 storm drain bonds by the Flood Control District, Supervisor Burton W. Chace said today.

The action was recommended by the County Flood Control District.

Bids for the sale are being accepted and will be opened April 15 by the Board of Supervisors, Chace said. Proceeds from the sale will finance the program until the fall of this year.

This is the 10th sale of 1964 bonds which authorized $275 million for construction of storm drain facilities in the county. Prior sales have amounted to $155,050,000.

Plans for the projects are prepared by the cities where they are to be built. Construction is by private contractors on a competitive bid basis supervised by the Flood Control District.

The latter agency also operates and maintains the facilities upon completion, Chace added.

Maid of Cotton Selected

Tammy Ferrey of Palos Verdes Peninsula will represent Harbor College in the statewide Maid of Cotton contest in Fresno, March 21 and 22.

She will be competing against representatives from other areas of the state to be chosen to represent California at the national Maid of Cotton contest later in the year at Memphis.

The California finalist will receive a $1,000 scholarship and a cotton wardrobe as well as making many personal appearances.

Miss Ferrey is a graduate of Rolling Hills High School and is now a freshman at Harbor. She plans to transfer to USC to earn a teaching credential. Life in the Peace Corps also appeals to Miss Ferrey.

New Health Officer for Area Named

Hilda M. Hyort, M.D., has been appointed district health officer for the Torrance District, according to the Los Angeles County Health Department.

Dr. Hyort succeeds Earl W. Kendrick, M.D., who has been named health officer for the Bellflower District. He has been the Torrance health officer since 1960.

The new district health officer formerly served in the Harbor Health District.
