

Kiwis Will Celebrate St. Pat's with Dance

Members of the South Bay Kiwi Club, former American Airlines stewardesses, their husbands and guests will get together to dance the Irish Jig on Saturday evening, March 15. The event will get underway with a cocktail hour beginning at 7:30 p.m. at The Brass Penny Inn, 700 Henry Ford Ave., Long Beach.

Dinner will be served at 8:30 p.m. and dancing will commence at 9 with Rudi Chermowski and his Leprechaun Group furnishing the music. Gay and colorful Irish motifs will decorate the banquet room as well as the dining tables.

Mary Lou Fulton will entertain during the evening with songs and playing the guitar. Mrs. T. T. Roberts, Rolling Hills, is chairman in charge of arrangements and reservations are being accepted by Mrs. M. M. Stober, 1606 Amelia Ave., San Pedro, no later than March 11.

All former American Airlines stewardesses and their guests are encouraged to join the Kiwis for a fun evening getting acquainted and renewing former "flying" friendships.
