Benefit Show Set at Chapel

A special benefit performance, sponsored by the Lomita Chamber of Commerce, has been scheduled at Chapel Theatre, 2222 W. Lomita Blvd., for Friday, April 11, at 8:30 p.m.

The current Chapel show is the comedy "The Owl and the Pussycat."

Funds from the Chamber-sponsored performance will be used to provide a marquee for the theatre, according to Henry Goethals, Chamber chairman of the event.

TICKETS for the performance will be on sale through Lomita area service clubs, Goethals said. A champagne reception will be hosted by theatre members prior to the performance. About $1,000 is needed to put up the marquee, according to Murray Rubin, a member of the Chapel Theatre.

More than $10,000 has been spent by the theatre to remodel the present quarters. The marquee, Rubin said, is needed to help patrons identify and locate the theatre.

"THE OWL and the Pussycat" is described as an "adult comedy." It stars Duke Schneider and Jo Lasman. Schneider is the winner of Chapel's "Angel" award for his performance in "Rattle of a Simple Man."

Persons who are unable to attend the performance, but who would like to contribute to the marquee fund, may contact the Lomita Chamber of Commerce, 2332 Narbonne Ave., Lomita.

Annual Easter Seal Fund Drive Launched

Easter Seals have started to arrive at more than two million homes in Los Angeles County as the appeal for funds to provide critically needed services for crippled children and adults gets underway.

The annual appeal, sponsored by the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County, continues through Easter Sunday, April 6.

Thousands of Easter Seal volunteers throughout the county, including women's organizations, handicapped young adults groups, Girl Scout, and Boy Scout Troops, parent guilds, senior citizen groups, and sorority alumnae groups, have been busy for six weeks preparing this year's mailing.

BECAUSE of this wide-spread volunteer support and the high standard of year around service provided, the Crippled Children's Society has received the endorsement of the Social Service Department for the 19th consecutive year. It is the only major national health agency to receive this endorsement.

Easter Seals are symbols of hope for the handicapped. Contributions to the drive will be used to provide a variety of direct services to physically handicapped children and their families, including orthopaedic appliances, day camping, resident summer camp, speech therapy, employment training and placement, and group recreational activities.

Crippled Children's Society hopes that all county residents will help call attention to the needs, hopes, and abilities of the handicapped by placing an Easter Seal on all Eastertime letters, cards, and packages.

Musicians Will Play In 'Battle'

Youthful musicians from the Torrance area are among the more than 800 Southland teenagers selected to participate in the county's 10th Annual Battle of the Bands, according to Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

Participating from Torrance are vocal soloists Marsha Kucherer and Joel Schneider.

Two dance bands from the Palos Verdes area were chosen to compete in the preliminaries. They are the Saints of Dixieland and Websters Unabridged.

School dance bands include the Windjammers, from San Pedro and Gardena, and the Palos Verdes High School dance band.

Also competing will be a combo from Palos Verdes known as Mid Day Glare.

Elks Schedule Paper Drive, Dinner Friday

The paper bin will be parked at the Torrance Elks Lodge from Friday, March 21, through Tuesday, March 25, to accommodate Elks and their friends who save scrap paper for the continuing paper drive conducted by the lodge. The lodge building is at 1820 Abalone Ave.

The Friday drive opening will coincide with the regular fish-fry schedule at the lodge, featuring fresh northern halibut prepared under the direction of Charlie Bright and R. L. "Bud" Mullin.

Dinner will be served from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Friday, according to Bob LeBlond, exalted ruler of the lodge.
