

De Fussi-Pettit Vows Solemnized March 1

Miss Patricia Lynn De Fussi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard De Fussi, 21925 Marjorie Ave., walked down the aisle of the South Bay Christian Church, on the arm of father, at one o'clock March 1 to exchange marriage vows with Martin Pettit. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Pettit of Manhattan Beach.

For the single ring ceremony, at which Rev. Donald R. Jarman officiated, the bride wore an A line white crepe gown with a front lace panel of daisies. Two long lace panels, fastened to a long bow at the back of V neckline, fell into a chapel train. Her shoulder length Swiss net veil was held by a lace petal and pearl headpiece. The bridal bouquet was of daisies and stephanotis.

Mrs. John Marsden served as her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Nancy Woodward, Dee Wojtecki, and Janet Butts.

Frank Lazarony was best man and ushers were Chuck Rogers, Jim De Fussi, Mark D'Ambrosi, and Mickey Pettit. After the ceremony, the 175 guests were entertained at a buffet reception at the Lobster House.

Now at home in North Redondo Beach, the newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Palm Desert.

The bride, a graduate of West High School, is a fine arts major at El Camino.

Her husband was graduated from Aviation High School and is attending El Camino College majoring in police science. He is employed by the General Telephone Co.

West High Secretary Receives PTA Award

Mrs. Genevieve Ramirez, secretary to the principal of West High School and president-elect of the South Bay Educational Office Employees Association, has been awarded an honorary life membership by the West High School Parent-Teacher Association.

A native of Charleston, Miss. Mrs. Ramirez received her education in California. She is a graduate of John Marshall High School and Kinman Business University in Washington.

Married to John Ramirez, proprietor of a Huntington Beach adding machine firm, Mrs. Ramirez is the mother of two sons, Mike and Tim, students at West High.

Preceding the birth of her first son, Mrs. Ramirez was employed as a secretary for Burroughs Corporation. During World War II, she was affiliated with the Counter Intelligence Corps at Spokane, Wash.

She returned to work in 1956, accepting a position with the guidance office at North High School. Since the opening of West High in 1962, she has served as secretary to Dr. Robert Ford, principal.

Rose Society Will Meet At Alondra

South Bay Rose Society will hold its monthly meeting at Alondra Park Activities Bldg., 3850 W. Manhattan Beach Blvd., Lawndale, on March 20 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Dorothy Van Varelde will show slides and give a report on the English Rose Convention. She will also give tips for growing better roses.

During a social hour, refreshments will be served and door prizes awarded. The public is invited to attend.

Prepare For Speeches

Torrance Woman's Club observed American Field Service Day at its luncheon meeting last Wednesday. Just before the program, the two guest speakers go over their notes with speech chairman, Mrs. Avis Creech. They are, at left, Amata Navamaret of Thailand, Mrs. Creech, and Barbara Moffitt, who spend last summer in the Philippines under the Americans Abroad program. Mrs. Robert Winship, club president, presented the guests. (Press-Herald Photo)

Mexican Orphans Will Benefit

Annual Art and Music Fiesta

Plans for the fourth Annual Fiesta of Art and Music, "Feria de Abril," sponsored by Peninsula Friends of Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos, were announced this week following appointments of committee heads by co-chairmen Dr. and Mrs. Loren Jessup, Palos Verdes Estates, and Mrs. and Mrs. William Mannatt, San Pedro. Paul Conrad, noted Pulitzer prize winner, will be honorary chairman.

The setting for the April 20 afternoon event, which will benefit 900 Mexican and other orphans, will be the home and gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leo Foley in Miraleste.

Invitations chairman Mrs. Richard Zigrang, Palos Verdes Peninsula, said some 2,900 invitations will be mailed the week of March 20. Aiding her is Miss Elizabeth Kline, Torrance.

Arrangements for the art show are under the direction of Studio 6, Palos Verdes Peninsula, and will feature exhibits, art in action, and a boutique.

Mrs. John Bilch, Rolling Hills, has accepted chairmanship of the petite buffet which will feature Mexican cuisine. Lt. Col. Leslie Summerfield, San Pedro, is in charge of refreshments.

Patron invitations have been mailed by patrons chairman, Mrs. Robert Murphy, San Pedro. Plans for Feria decorations are being drawn by Mrs. Richard Marcia, San Pedro.

Reservations will be handled by Dr. and Mrs. Gene de Angeles, Palos Verdes Peninsula. Mrs. Daniel F. Logan, Palos Verdes Estates, is arranging the music and entertainment, while Mrs. John E. Treacy, Palos Verdes Estates, is in charge of the prizes.

Mrs. Robert Haase, Palos Verdes Estates, and Mrs. Francis L. Foley, will take care of hospitality. The program is being executed by Mrs. Casper Klee, Palos Verdes Peninsula. Mrs. Robert Burson, Rolling Hills Estates, is press chairman.

Peninsula Friends of Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos is dedicated to aiding Mexican orphans at Rev. William Wassons's foundations in Mexico City, Cuernavaca, and Hacienda Alsolmen. As a direct result of the Fiesta of Art and Music held the past three years, Dr. Andrew J. DePaolo, Rolling Hills Estates, founder and president of the local group, has been able to fully equip an office in Mexico City, which provides complete free dental care for 900 orphans.

Nine High Schools Take Part

Choral Festival Set at El Camino April 15

Master Chorale Associates of Palos Verdes, a local group of women interested in promoting choral music, and members of the Southern California Choral Music Association, are sponsoring a Choral Festival workshop April 5, 7:30 p.m., at El Camino College.

Nine South Bay High School choral groups will be participating: El Segundo, Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills, Leusinger, Redondo Union, Torrance, North, South and West High Schools. Each school will sing two renaissance pieces directed by its own music director. The choirs also will be directed in two additional pieces by the renowned Dr. Roger Wagner, conductor of the Los Angeles Master Chorale. Dr. Wagner will spend the day rehearsing each of the nine groups before presentation of the evening's performance. Dr. Wagner is donating his time to work with these 200 young people, and is flying home from Hawaii for the Festival.

Tickets will be available at the door, or through the music directors of each school. The Master Chorale Associates will be hostesses of this event, and Mrs. William Wester of Palos Verdes Estates, chairman of the Choral Festival Workshop, invites the public to attend and support the young people of the area.

Bridge Party

Mrs. Jack Phillips entertained at a dessert bridge party Wednesday evening at her Osage Avenue home.

Her guests were Mmes. Howard Walker, Chalmers Strayer, William Steinberg, Eugene Lenk, Frank Barnes, Jack Dean, and Jack Rice.

Mrs. Strayer will be hostess at the next regular club meeting.
