

Southview B'nai B'rith Women

To Install at Dinner-Dance

Southview Chapter 1103, B'nai B'rith Women, will install their new officers for 1969-70 at a dinner dance on Saturday, March 29, at 7 p.m. at the Cockatoo Inn, Inglewood.

Pink and red floral centerpieces will enhance the tables and the team of Stella and Arturo will entertain with piano and song stylings. Dancing will follow the installation ceremony.

Mrs. Howard Zimmerman, past president of District 4, B'nai B'rith Women, will serve as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Laurence Rodson, past president of Southview chapter. Mrs. Edward Bornstein will be installed as the new president and will be presented with the chapter's gavel.

Officers elected to serve with Mrs. Bornstein are Mmes. Robert Robbins, first vice president; Robert Zimel, second vice president; Alan Winner, third vice-president; Eugene Kushnick, treasurer; Donald Kovalsky, financial secretary; David Yeskin, corresponding secretary; Lawrence Schneider, recording Secretary; and Mrs. Joseph E. Bishop, outgoing president, will serve as counselor to the group.

Assume Official Duties

Parish Guilds' Two Style Show Benefits

A "Caribbean Cruise to Fashion," third annual style show benefits presented by St. Anthony of Padua Parish Guild Association, will set sail on Monday and Tuesday, March 24 and 25, announced Cruise Captain, Mrs. Martin Butier of Torrance. Proceeds will help defray debts incurred by the parish building program, she added.

rance, Mrs. Butier reports, many of whom are assisting actively with the fashion show event. Among these are committee chairmen Mmes. Earl Fink, Glenn Hellman, Alfred Ingram, Manuel Orozco, Joseph Skelley, Joseph Stark, and Miss Kathy Carbonniere.

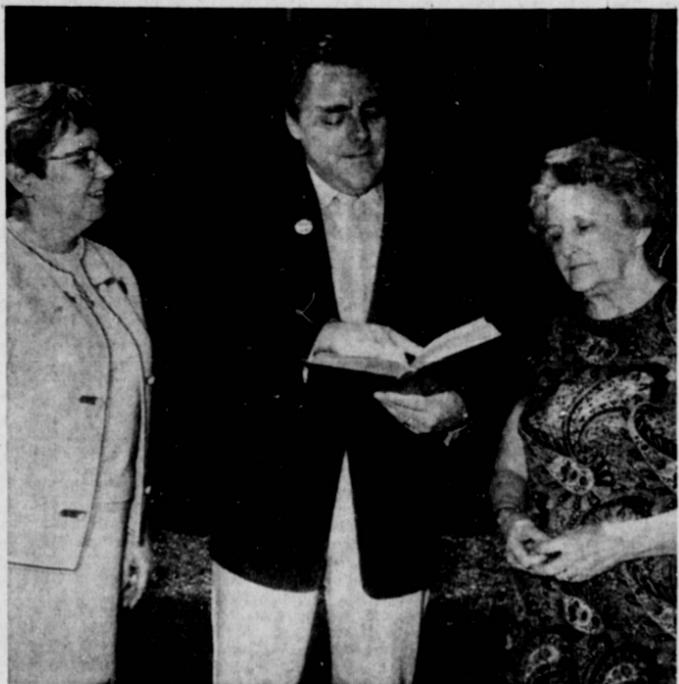

Appearing as models will be Mrs. Carl Rose, Mrs. Oscar Campa, and teen Miss Susan Stark.

Children's wear will be shown by Dennis Dickson, Donna Fink, Maude Horgan, Nancy Sepulveda, and Jerry Spears.

Other features will be men's fashions and maternity fashions. New hairstyles and new cosmetics will also be shown.

Reservations for the "cruise" are being taken by Mrs. Harold Meziere and Mrs. James Cragin.

Each evening will begin with a "Bon Voyage" social hour at 7 p.m. in the parish hall, 163rd at New Hampshire, Gardena. The tour will embark at 8 p.m. as models step from the cruise-ship deck to the atmosphere of a West Indies isle. Guests will discover a treasure-trove of family fashions; souvenirs of the cruise abroad will include gift opportunities and grand prize events.

Outline Dinner Program

Torrance Pilot Club will hear a program "Patriotic Emblems" at their dinner meeting Thursday evening, March 27, at the Queen's Kitchen, 1332 Sartori Ave. Their guest speaker will be Ron Wright, radio broadcaster, who has his own show on KTYM each Thursday at 2:30 p.m. Two Pilot Club members, Clara Dougherty, left, and Violet Whittington, right, discuss the program with the guest speaker, who will also show a film "The Pied Pipers." Clara Dougherty is taking reservations. (Press-Herald Photo)

Starts Early on Career

Candy Striper Gets the Nod

A 15-year-old sophomore at Banning High knows what place she wants to fill in society and she has started early on the path.

She is Mary Never, who joined the Candy Stripers at Bay Harbor Hospital in May, 1968, and since that time has chalked up 450 service hours. Since June of 1968, the Candy Stripers, under the leadership of Mrs. M. J. Shepard of San Pedro, have put in 2,100 hours at the hospital with Mary's total the highest contribution.

Mary says, "I've always wanted to be a nurse ever since I knew what a nurse was." She is getting first hand experience two days a week, Thursdays and Saturdays, serving in the emergency room. Terry Freeman, male nurse, who has worked with Mary says she has a knack for putting the patient at ease before proceeding with the necessary paper work for admittance. Two staff physicians, working in emergency added, "it's a joy to see this young girl so dedicated to her work and so eager to learn."

The "outstanding" Candy Striper is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Never, who own an office machines company in Wilmington.

Mary plans to go to Harbor College for one year followed by four years at Queen of Angels School of Nursing to receive her RN degree.

Chalks Up 450 Service Hours

A Candy Striper at Bay Harbor Hospital, winning the admiration of physicians and hospital personnel, is 15-year-old Mary Never, who has turned in 450 service hours since last May. Mary works in emergency and here she fills out the necessary forms for admittance as Terry Foreman, left, nurse, and Mrs. M.J. Shepard, Candy Striper chairman, look on. (Press-Herald Photo)

Zeta Tau Alpha Announces

Annual State Day March 22

"Cooking with Corris," a regular television show on Wednesdays at 12 noon, on KTLA's Channel 5, will have a new meaning for several hundred members of Zeta Tau Alpha when they gather for their annual State Day, on Saturday, March 22, at 10 a.m., at the Proud Bird Restaurant, 11022 Aviation Blvd., near the Los Angeles International Airport.

Miss Corris Guy, a member of the fraternity, who is vice president and director of public relations and consumer service for Helms Bakeries of Los Angeles, is also producer and star of "Cooking with Corris," and will be the featured luncheon speaker for the annual event. Her show is the oldest on the television circuits, having run continuously since 1947. In connection with it, she also edits "Cooking with Corris," a recipe release printed monthly with 100,000 copies being distributed to homemakers throughout Southern California.

State Day events will begin at 10 a.m. with registration and coffee followed by an hour of alumnae reports and discussions moderated by Mrs. William Woods of Fullerton, Province President. From 11:30 to 12:30 there will be a social hour.

The luncheon and program will begin at 12:30 and Mrs. Robert Alexander of Huntington Beach, former national vice president of the fraternity, will preside as toastmistress. After the speaker she will present the presidents of the 11 alumnae chapters in Southern California, and the presidents of the two collegiate chapters: Delta Alpha of California State College in Long Beach, and Zeta Pi at Woodbury College in Los Angeles. The collegiates will give reports of their Chapters' activities and accomplishments of the past year. The Palos Verdes Alumnae Chapter President is Mrs. John Hutchison of Rolling Hills.

Mrs. John Richert of Long Beach, president of the Zeta Tau Alpha Federation, will present awards to the outstanding senior and pledge of each college chapter. The recipients are chosen by their own chapters on the basis of scholarship and all-round excellence, and their names are not divulged until the awards are given.

Mrs. Bruce McEntire of West Covina, District President-South, will present the national Certificate of Merit and the Order of the Shield awards to qualifying alumnae. Among the nine alumnae receiving the latter will be Mrs. E. D. Wylie of Glendale, state president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. Her chapter in the fraternity is Epsilon of the University of Arkansas. The luncheon program will end with songs and skits presented by the college chapters.

The West-side Santa Monica Alumnae Chapter under the direction of Miss Ethel Culom, president, and Mrs. John Hartman, Federation representative, is in charge of arrangements for State Day.

The local Palos Verdes Alumnae will take a part in the day's proceedings.
