El Redondo DAR Chapter To Honor Contest Winners

Winning senior girls in this year's Good Citizen and Home-maker contest sponsored by the El Redondo Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be guests of honor at the meeting of the Chapter on April 11 at 1 p.m. at La Casita in Del Amo Center.

Five high schools in the South Bay area participated in the contest. The nine senior girls, their mothers and the girls vice principals of their respective schools will be special guests at the tea following the meeting.

Mrs. D. M. Considine of Miraleste, chapter chairman of the Good Citizens and Girl Homemakers Committees, will be assisted by Mrs. Henry Timmers in presenting the awards. Mrs. Timmers is state vice chairman of the two committees and is also the past regent of the El Redondo Chapter.

Good Citizen award pins will be presented to Isabel Perez of Aviation High; Greta Goranson, Mira Costa; Cynthia Shank, Redondo Union; Mary Griffith, Palos Verdes; and Martha Curtis, Rolling Hills High.

Recipients of the silver spoons, decorated with the DAR emblem, will be Homemakers Carol Francis, Aviation High; Barbara Hunter, Mira Costa; Lorene Cowan, Redondo; and Holly Schreyer, Rolling Hills.

The senior girls in the Home Economics department, who win awards, must show excellence in the domestic arts and in good citizenship as well.

According to Mrs. Considine "both qualities are vital to our homes, our country, and government."
