

Luncheon Honors Boarding Mothers

Long Beach Council of Auxiliaries of Children's Home Society, adoption agency, will hold its annual "Boarding Mothers Luncheon" on Friday, April 18. This affair, honoring the boarding mothers in the Long Beach area, will be held at the home of Mrs. Howard Jones, 651 Ultimo, Long Beach. These women and their families provide devoted temporary care while the babies are awaiting adoption into permanent loving homes within a few months.

The Children's Home Society has provided adoption services to 32,500 children of all races and faiths throughout California. This is California's only statewide adoption agency and provides services to natural parents, homeless children, and couples seeking to begin or increase their family through adoption.

Hosting the luncheon will be members of eight auxiliaries in the Long Beach and South Bay area including Beach Pixies, South Bay; Carriage Set, Carson; Lamplighters, Long Beach; Madonna Guild, South Los Angeles; Palos Verdes Peppers, Palos Verdes Estates; Sandlarks, Long Beach; Sea Sprites, Palos Verdes Peninsula; and Sir Beaumont of Torrance. These groups are among the two hundred and thirty seven hard-working auxiliaries in California which provide approximately 21 per cent of the agency's operating income.

After attending services at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf entertained their family at an Easter Breakfast and Egg Hunt at their Halldale Avenue home. Joining Mr. and Mrs. Wolf were their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolf and daughter, Sherry, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gazeley, Kris, Grant and Susan.

The Children's Home Society is a member agency of the Los Angeles area of United Way and receives financial support through the United Crusade. Overall chairman for this event is Mrs. Don W. John of the Palos Verdes Peppers.
