

GRADUATES . . . John Mattingly of Torrance was one of 52 men graduated from the Los Angeles Police Academy April 18. Officer Mattingly, now on duty with the Los Angeles Police Department, is a native of Torrance and a graduate of the Dominguez Seminary High School.

25 Listed On College Honor Roll

Twenty-three students from Torrance and two from Lomita have been named to the Dean's List at California State College, Dominguez Hills, for the winter quarter.

They are among some 100 students honored by academic deans at the new state college.

Students must maintain a 3.5 grade point average in at least 12 units of classroom work to qualify for the Dean's List.

Torrance students honored included: Norma Anderson, Kit G. Azlein, Kirsten Bertelson, Guy H. Coates, Janelle R. Cohen, Michael R. Conklin, Margaret Douglas, Kris Eitmann, Marilee J. Irvin, and John R. Landley, and Michael L. Lewis.

Others from Torrance include Hiromasa Makino, Esther L. Mamiya, Karen L. McGrath, Katherine W. Miller, Gilbert M. Mueller, Margaret A. Nelson, Audrey M. Popp, Robert L. Pulliam, Elizabeth J. Shaw, Kathleen A. Sprout, Betty Jo Stovall, and Robert S. Triplitt.

The Lomita students are Michael P. Angelich and Patricia A. Landauer.

Also named to the list were five Redondo Beach students and two from Harbor City. They are Margaret Citrin, Mark Fields, Robert W. Lafond, Monte A. McElroy, and Robert A. Sanford of Redondo Beach; and Charles A. Roberts and Diane M. Thomas of Harbor City.

Crash Report Wrong

The Press-Herald regrets an error which appeared in the Wednesday, April 30, edition.

In reporting a hit-run accident at the corner of Anza and Halison Avenues, the newspaper stated that a city of Torrance sanitation truck was driven from the scene before proper identification could be made.

The truck which rammed the rear end of a car stopped for a traffic sign was not a city of Torrance vehicle. The confusion stemmed from the fact that the truck was driven by a city of Torrance sanitation employee, who was later booked for felony hit-run driving.

There were no major injuries resulting from the collision.

Mrs. Copelin To Be Installed
