Warrior Trails

By Cathy Focarazzo

The end of the school year is approaching rapidly.

Moneymaking projects for the Senior class have begun to accelerate in order to raise money for many of the bills that the class must attend to at this time. Saturday there is to be a Senior Car Wash and Doughnut Sale. Tickets have been on sale during the week at 50 cents per ticket or a dollar at the gate. Also in order to raise money, hundreds of See's suckers at 10 cents each or three for a quarter have been in circulation.

At the Monterey Park Parade West really scored with the trophies. The Drill Team took a first place trophy and Rocky Westlake, Drum Major, placed first. Our majorettes took a second place. West was awarded the sweepstakes trophy for the overall performance.

TUESDAY at 8 a.m., the West Nominating Convention begins. All the delegates, demonstrations, and candidates will begin the exciting convention as this first important political convention gets underway. There will be a surprise keynote speaker, press coverage and many important speeches and proceedings.

Last Tuesday night the annual Pep Squad-Drill Team Banquet was held from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. There, Miss Marilyn Commeau and all of the girls were presented with awards and certificates for their services throughout the year. All the flags, songs and cheerleaders received their golden flag, songnote or megaphone charms and all two-year pep squad members were given silver charms.

THE DRILL Team first-year members received gold "W" charms, second-year members a certificate, and third-year members a charm for outstanding service. The "High Point" award went to Linda Scheele, and Vickie Bond, Marcia Rumisek, Lynne Ciotti, Darlee Frame and Linda Scheele were elected to the Drill Team "Hall of Fame." Shelley Ciscel received a trophy for "Most Improved" on Drill Team.

Brenda Moore, flag twirler, was elected to the Pep Squad "Hall of Fame" and Cathy Focarazzo, also on flags was awarded "Most Improved" on Pep Squad.

There were several good skits done by the juniors on Pep Squad and Drill Team that were really hilarious and Vicki Bond, Lynn Ambrosoli, Debi Eisman and Teri Powers sang some popular folk songs for entertainment. They were all really good and it made the banquet a great success. Miss Commeau herself, received many new gifts and a beautiful, personally engraved trophy from the Drill Team.

Light District Near Complete

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reports a street lighting system in the area bounded by Normandie Avenue, 204th Street, New Hampshire Avenue, and Torrance Boulevard is nearing completion.

"Ample street lighting is not only a major deterrent to crime, Hahn said, but also will provide nighttime safety to pedestrians and motorists."
