WE ASKED THESE LADIES TO SHOP AND COMPARE FOOD PRICES. JUST LOOK HOW MUCH THEY SAVED AT FOODS CO.

If you've been concerned about the rising cost of feeding your family, now's the time to see what Foods Co.'s "Total Value Prices" can do for your total food budget. Just look what these shoppers—ladies just as concerned about rising prices as you are—found out about Foods Co.'s "Total Value Prices".

We asked them to make two different shopping trips—one to Foods Co. and the other to another supermarket near their homes. They each used the same list, bought exactly the same items at the two stores they visited. After their shopping trips were completed these shoppers were convinced that Foods Co.'s "Total Value Prices" could substantially lower their total food bills.

Check the results yourself. If these are the kind of savings you could use on your food budget . . . now's the time to stop in and check prices for yourself.
