

vels
 orator
 c 00
 ptic ers
 c
 DOOR
 g Kit
 n flag, 6 ft.
 e, rope hal-
 3.49
 27c
 Flag 27c
 ction of the All with 3-ended patent 2.88
 "Seventeen"
 o-go" trims,
 ent and se-1.99 elettes tains special to use in the cleanses 59c
 Powder
 free-flowing d deodorizes
 1.29
 Trays
 paper-mache Plastic edges
 ce of designs
 59c
 ONI
 speeds up Gives you look. Con-1.49
 ment hair-t Color for covers gray
 2.00
 SE
 NE with ction!
 by
 ONE® 3.09

Preview of What's To Come

Two members of the Rembrandt Crew, a group of peninsula artists, who will present their annual Parasol Show, an outdoor art exhibit and sale, show two of their own paintings which will be on display. They are, from left, Mrs. Don E. Williams and Mrs. Herbert Jones. The public is invited to attend the event in the Palos Verdes Plaza on June 7 and 8.

Rembrandt Crew's Parasol Show Set June 7-8

Rembrandt Crew of the Palos Verdes Community Arts Association, will present its 1969 Parasol Show on June 7 and 8, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. both days, at the Palos Verdes Plaza.

The Parasol Show is an annual outdoor exhibit of water-colors, oils, collages and paintings of other media. Many of the works to be seen will portray the familiar scenes of the South Bay and the Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Each artist's works will be displayed under a gaily colored parasol. Portfolios, prepared by each artist of sketches and unmatted drawings, will be available for browsing. The exhibiting artists will be hostesses and will be prepared to answer questions. Many paintings will be offered for sale.

Under the shade trees on the lawn across from the Neptune Fountain in the Palos Verdes Estates plaza, the atmosphere will be conducive to browsing and conversation with the artists.

The Rembrandt Crew, a group of women from the Peninsula, includes many artists who exhibit throughout Southern California. Officers are Jean West, president; Georgia McBean, vice president; Lura Norman, secretary; Joan Fey, corresponding secretary, and Wilma Pado, treasurer.

Other members are Mmes. Thomas T. Burger, Richard Bearman, Grant Beckstrand, H. M. Bucher, George Chacksfield, Ben Collins, James Daily, William Fain, Robert Felt, Wayne Fey, Herbert Jones, Ronald MacKinnon, D. M. Modessette, Roland Philleo, W. E. Ruth, Thomas Spear, Berthold Starr, Leonard West, Donald Williams, Donald Voorhees, John Wulfson and Frederick Wood.

The artists have increased their activities by entering shows individually and as a group and in many invitational shows.

Madrecitas Plans "Left Bank" Party For Husbands

Candlelight and can can girls, dominating a French motif, will mark the informal Husband's Night Buffet planned by Las Madrecitas, Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital.

The affair will be held Saturday, June 7, at 7:30 p.m. at Club Bagatelle, Golden Cove.

A "tieless" night, designed for informality, is in order, according to Mrs. William B. Houghton, chairman of the event. Assisting her are Mmes. Gilbert Limberg, Donald Durnal, Joseph Thomas, Samuel Cunningham and Arlie J. Blood.

Mrs. Howard Langpap is president of Las Madrecitas.

In a French Setting

Romance of "gay Paree" will permeate Club Bagatelle on Saturday evening, June 7, when Las Madrecitas stages its annual "Husband's Night" party. Creating the French atmosphere for the informal evening are committee members, Mmes. Donald Durnal, lighting a candle; William B. Houghton, holding a poster of Paris and Frank A. Bescoby, with palette and brush, ready to create more decorations.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Rippy-Day Marriage Vows Solemnized Alpha Phi Ends Year

MRS. JACK W. DAY, JR.
 (Portrait by Seeman)

Miss Kathleen Rippy, daughter of Mrs. David MacMillan of Fountain Valley and Charles T. Rippy, Jr. of Torrance, walked down the aisle of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, on the arm of her father, at two o'clock, May 17, to exchange marriage promises with Lt. Jack Willis Day, Jr. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Day of Torrance.

The wedding gown was of silk organza fashioned with a Venise lace bodice and cameo neckline. Lace appliques enhanced the full skirt of the gown which fell into a laced train. A Venise lace headpiece held her illusion veil and she carried a cascade of miniature white carnations.

In the bridal entourage were Mrs. Timothy F. Taylor, matron of honor; Misses Kristine Erickson, maid of honor; Betty Schleifer, Pamela Blakley and Melinda Rojo, bridesmaids. Their gowns were of white organza over blue. The honor attendants carried baskets of blue and white daisies and the bridesmaids carried nosegays of blue daisies.

Gregory Day served his brother as best man and ushers were Thomas Rippy, Frank Tarquin, Jerry Weeks and Robert Hedgpath.

The Rev. Hugh Percy officiated at the double ring marriage ceremony. Nuptial music was played by Henry Felin, organist, who also accompanied Edward Palmer, soloist.

The 200 guests were entertained at a reception at Sam's restaurant after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe. Miss Wendy Rojo was in charge of the bride's book.

The bride, a fourth generation Californian, is a 1965 graduate of Torrance High School. She will be graduated in June from the School of Occupational Therapy at San Jose State College. The new Mrs. Day is the granddaughter of Mrs. C. T. Rippy of Torrance and the late Mr. C. T. Rippy; Mrs. Henry Treskes of Torrance, and Mr. William Rojo of Garden Grove. She is the great-granddaughter of Mr. George Henderson of Torrance.

Lieutenant Day is a graduate of North High School and the School of Law Enforcement at San Jose State College. He is now a paratrooper with the United States Army and will leave in June for overseas duty. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brooks of La Mirada and Mr. Matthew Day of Oklahoma.

Alpha Phi Ends Year

Peninsula-South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Phi has traditionally held its last meeting of the year before recessing for the summer at the Palos Verdes Estates home of Mrs. Anne Leeper. In keeping with this tradition, the meeting will be a potluck luncheon honoring and installing incoming officers and thanking outgoing officers for a job well done. This year the meeting will begin at 11:30 a.m., on Wednesday, June 4.

Mrs. John Dozier of Palos Verdes Peninsula, outgoing president, will turn over her gavel to Mrs. James Walsh of Palos Verdes Estates. Mrs. Karl Trovinger will take over the position of first vice president and program chairman from Mrs. Richard Bowdoy of Miraleste. Miss Barbara Gerard of Redondo Beach will pick up the secretary's pen and note book from Mrs. J. P. Agronick of Palos Verdes Peninsula. Mrs. Robert Griffin of Palos Verdes Estates will continue in her present position as treasurer.

Any Alpha Phis in the area who have not been contacted and are interested in attending this always delightful affair may call Mrs. John Dozier or Mrs. William Herzstock.

Future Brides

Mounger-Wood

At a nuptial mass at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 14, at Nativity Catholic Church, Miss Melanie Ruth Mounger will become the bride of Lee Thomas Wood.

The announcement of their daughter's approaching marriage is made today by Mr. and Mrs. Temple B. Mounger of Torrance.

The future bride is a graduate of Torrance High school and Flavio's Beauty College. She is employed by a Lomita beauty salon.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wood of Harbor City, was graduated from Serra High school. He is employed as a journeyman plumber in Harbor City.

MELANIE MOUNGER

Ayala-Whetston

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ayala, 22627 Ladeene, announce the engagement of their daughter, Bernadine, to James M. Whetston of Torrance.

The future bride was graduated from South High School and El Camino College where she studied cosmetology. She is employed by an area beauty salon.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Whetston, 22628 Ladeene Ave., was graduated from South High School and attended Lassen Junior College. He was recently discharged from the United States Army after serving three years of active duty as a paratrooper.

BERNADINE AYALA

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MAY 28, 1969

B-1

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hixson of 234th St. Torrance, announce the engagement and marriage plans of their daughter, Kathleen Dianne, and Thomas Russell Fox of Torrance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fox of El Segundo.

The wedding will be solemnized at 2 p.m. on June 28 at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita.

The future bride was graduated from Bishop Montgomery High School. She attended El Camino College and is now employed by Sears Del Amo.

Her fiance was graduated from a Grand Junction, Colo. High school. He also attended El Camino College and is employed by the Toyota Co.

Local Girl Is Airlines Hostess

Miss Kathleen Marie Murray, daughter of Col. and Mrs. James R. Murray, 649 Paseo de la Playa, has been awarded the silver wings of an American Airlines stewardess and has now been assigned to flight duty out of New York City.

She received her wings as a graduate in the 12th class this year at the American Airlines Stewardess College, Fort Worth, Tex.

A native of San Rafael, Miss Murray is a 1965 graduate of South High in Torrance. She earned her BS degree in business administration from Woodbury College in Los Angeles in college, she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

Prior to joining American Airlines, she was employed at Futures, Inc., in Los Angeles.

She is 5'5" tall with blonde hair and blue eyes.

KATHLEEN MURRAY
 ... Wins Silver Wings