

Civitan To Install Officers

The annual awards and installation dinner of the Torrance Civitan Club will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Jump 'N Jack Restaurant.

Included in the dinner ceremonies will be the installation of Harry Thayer, president; Ted Walker, secretary-treasurer; Ken Christofferson, vice-president; and W. E. Walton and Carl Warner, board of directors.

Special guest at the affair will be Dean Bissere, governor-elect of the California South District Civitan International. Also attending will be Torrance Mayor Albert Isen and his wife, Sara.

Members who have performed outstanding service to the community or to Civitan will be presented awards by Dick Ciciotti, Lt. Governor California South District of Civitan International.

Secretary Filing Date Announced

Secretaries are needed by the City of Torrance. All applicants must have been residents of Torrance for at least one year immediately preceding the date of filing.

Final filing date is July 1. The civil service exam will be given July 12 at 9 a.m. at Torrance High School, Room 100. Applicants must be high school graduates with two years of general clerical experience.

Candidates must be able to type 50 words per minute and take shorthand at 100 words per minute.

Further information is available from the City of Torrance personnel department.

Budget

financing of the city Hall addition and the acquisition and development of Columbia Park.

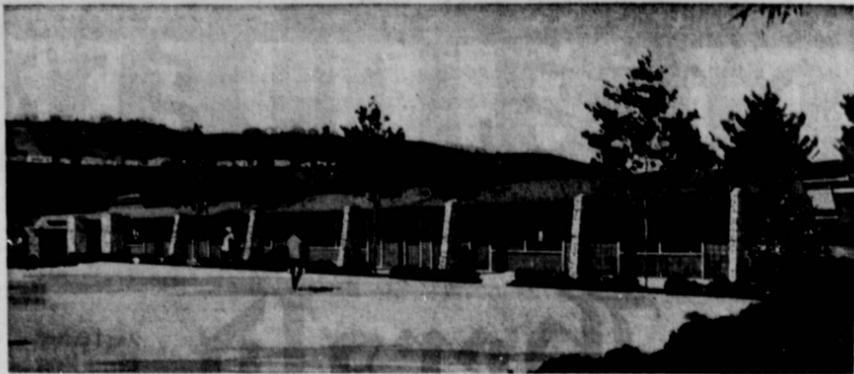

PROPERTY TAXES will account for 34 per cent ($5,091,911) of total revenues. Other taxes (including the new utility tax) will account for 42 per cent ($6,140,000) of total revenues.

Ferraro's proposed budget allows for the addition of five new police personnel, with total police expenditure estimated at $3,068,527. Twelve new police department positions were added in fiscal 1968-69; 18 in 1967-68; 7 in 1966-67; and 16 in 1965-66.

One new position is recommended for the Torrance Fire Department. Total department budget was estimated at $2,071,854.

PROMOTED . . . Thomas Baron of Torrance (left) receives his badge from Los Angeles City Fire Chief Raymond Hill after being promoted to the rank of battalion chief in the Los Angeles City Fire Department. Baron, a resident of Torrance since 1944, joined the fire department in 1952. He was graduated from Torrance High School, El Camino College, and California State College at Long Beach. He and his wife Sharon are parents of four children.

NEW SCHOOL . . . Artist's conception of the new elementary school to be built on the Chadwick School grounds is shown here. Construction of the new school, to replace the current lower school buildings, will begin within 30 days, according to Jack A. Swain, chairman of the board of the Roessler-Chadwick Foundation. The facility will be known as the Village School and include 16 classrooms, administrative offices, a faculty workroom, and an art center. Architects are Doney, Bundy & Associates.

Obedience Supervisor Picks Lomita Classes Graduated Official as Press Aide

Harbor-Lite Dog Obedience Club has graduated two novice training classes.

Trophy and ribbon winners of the Saturday class were: Lynda Maleta of San Pedro, Shetland Sheepdog; Bruce Wulfe of Carson, Irish Setter; and Robert Keith of San Pedro, Shetland Sheepdog.

Winners in the Wednesday night class were: Richard Martin of Torrance, German Shorthair Pointer; Elaine Giese of Palos Verdes Peninsula, Australian Shepherd; and Mary Joan Knipe of Redondo Beach, Irish Setter.

Highest scoring junior handler trophy and ribbon was awarded to Elaine Giese.

Judging the Wednesday night graduation were Jeanne Walker of San Pedro and Dave Nun of Lakewood. The Saturday class was judged by Janet Charles of Huntington Park and Karl Winkler of San Pedro.

The Harbor-Lite Dog Obedience Club will close its Saturday class until September.

Registration for the Wednesday night class will be held June 25 at 7 p.m. at Peck Park, 560 N. Western, San Pedro. Classes are limited to not more than 20 handlers and dogs.

Instructing the two classes is Marty Lehr.

The Harbor-Lite Dog Obedience Club is sponsor of Girl Scout Troop 2000 of Torrance and the "Noah's Ark" Junior Pet Show held annually at Peck Park.

he is survived by his father, William Dixon Jr. of Boulder, Colo.; a brother, Stephen Dixon; and his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. Webber of Hawthorne and Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon Sr. of Texas.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary.

A Lomita councilman has been appointed deputy to Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

The appointee is Jim Cole, councilman and immediate past mayor of the city of Lomita.

Newcomers Get New Booklets

Newcomers to Torrance and other Los Angeles area communities are now receiving copies of public information pamphlets prepared by the office of District Attorney Evelle J. Younger.

The publications include: Functions and Responsibilities of the District Attorney's Office; Operation On Guard, which details protection against bunco artists and con men; and The Battered Child. They are being distributed by representatives of Welcome Wagon, INnc.

Younger noted that it is essential that the public understand and be familiar with the operations of the District Attorney's Office.

"Because of this," he continued, "we have made available to Welcome Wagon a series of our information pamphlets for distribution."

Crackdown On Drunks Reported

A crackdown on drunk driving in California was made during the first quarter of this year.

Arrests for the serious offense totaled 14,212, according to the National Automobile Club, a rise of 28 per cent over those recorded in the same period last year. And March alone saw 5,000 arrests.

It primarily took an increase of 10 per cent in man-hours of law enforcement to do it, to help rid our public streets of the drunk driving menace.
