

Racquet Roundup In Mid-June

Planning Tennis Invitational

While planning their Racquet Roundup for June 14 and 15, from left, Jack Kahlo, Dr. Warren Harvard Low, and Charlot York enjoy the candid shots from last year's Roundup. The Roundup, one of the Southland's most important tennis invitational, will benefit the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation.

Benefit For Retarded Children's Foundation

One of the Southland's most important tennis invitational will highlight June again this year when the Peninsula Racquet Roundup swings into play for the fourth consecutive year.

The benefit for the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation sponsored by the Patrons, attracted 275 entrants in 1968 and double this number is anticipated this year. The Roundup will be played on 20 local private courts Saturday and Sunday, June 14 and 15. Entry fee includes lunch and admission to the final events. The finals and cocktail party June 22 will be at the private court and gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ellis in Rolling Hills.

Following the traditional format, stars of screen and television will play in exhibition matches. For information call Dr. Warren Harvard Low before the entry deadline Wednesday, June 4.

Players from many parts of the Southland of many playing levels are attracted to the mixed doubles social event in five classes, Championship, A, B, C and D. Trophies are awarded in each division.

A party honoring court donors has been arranged by the Patrons on Friday, June 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kahlo in Palos Verdes Estates.

Patrons planning the benefit are Dr. Low, general chairman; Kahlo, Low, Lynn Moss, Dr. David Conrad, William Brown and Buddington Claire, court coordinators; Kahlo, Conrad, Del Little, final day events; Mrs. Kahlo, social chairman; Mrs. Conrad and Mrs. Ellis, secretaries; Al Fierman, trophies; Mrs. Jack Marsh, patrons' chairman; Charlot York, art; and Mrs. Claire, public relations.

Local Girls Win Silver Wings

Two Torrance girls have been awarded the silver wings of an American Airlines stewardess and both have been assigned to flight duty out of New York City.

They are Miss Elke Elizabeth Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry, 20105 Entradero, and Miss Lynn Ann Pierce, daughter of the Earl Pierces of 3923 Manhattan Beach Blvd.

The girls were members of American's 13th graduating class at the Airlines' college in Fort Worth, Tex.

Miss Henry attended West High and was graduated in 1966. She attended El Camino College. Prior to becoming an airlines stewardess she was employed by the Murray B. Marsh Co. in East Los Angeles. She is 5'6" tall with red hair and brown eyes.

Miss Pierce, a 1966 graduate of Leuzinger High, earned her AA degree in history at El Camino. She is 5'3" tall with brown hair and brown eyes.

The stewardesses studied more than 100 different subjects during their six weeks training, ranging from make-up and grooming to in-flight food service and theory of flight.

Very Young Don Cap, Gown

Graduation Day was an exciting time for 30 children attending the Headstart School at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church. They had ceremonies "just like the big kids" and the mothers were there to applaud. The Torrance Junior Woman's Club made their robes and furnished refreshments for the after-grad party. Two Juniors helping two graduates with last minute adjustments are from left, Mrs. Robert Vroman with five-year-old Gloria Hammond, and Mrs. Frank Bounds with Javier Chevas, also 5.
