

Our Faith In Torrance

When Torrance was a field of golden poppies
And fogs rolled in from the sea,

We Had Faith in Torrance!

When a greater and broader mind than ours
Told us that the fields of golden poppies
Would some day give way to busy streets,

We Had Faith In Him!

Now, when dreams come true
And factories rise where poppies grew,
Our City,

We Have Faith In You!

Who knows what tomorrow has in store,
When such wonders wrought
In so short a space,
When trails give way to city streets,

Torrance, We Are Proud Of You!

The Arab that slowly folds his tent
And passes on,
Will pitch his tent in Torrance
And stay. And serve.

For He Will Have Faith In You.

We do not aim to be any greater
Than the City we tie our hopes to.
We have pitched our tent
And we are going to stay,
And serve, with a cordial willingness,
And consideration for the other fellow.

TORRANCE NEWS

J. P. Pinney, architect and contractor, has the foundation laid for the M. S. May home, on Marcelina avenue.

Mr. Merrill, of Acassia street, Lomita, an employee of the glass factory, is planning to go out on a claim after the work closes in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paige, with their daughter, Roselina and Louis, motored to Riverside Sunday, and while lunching at Fairmont Park met several old friends from Redondo.

Rev. Gordon A. Riegler has been invited to attend the inaugural of President R. B. Von Klein Smid, April 27-29. This includes the Pan-American conference, at which delegates from all the American nations will be present, with leading educators of the United States, and men of political standing.

Miss Ruth McKenzie, of Los Angeles, spent the week-end with Miss Elsie Woodward of Arlington avenue.

Mrs. E. X. Andem is ill, and confined to her home for the past two weeks.

Mrs. J. G. Gay and Mrs. A. L. Crossette, of Arlington avenue, visited with a friend in Los Angeles Tuesday.

Mrs. S. J. Davis and Miss Anna Dart, of Huntington Park, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ackley, of Andreo street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. King of Andreo avenue gave a St. Patrick's farewell party Friday evening in honor of Mr. Raymond Davis, who will leave Sunday for Alabama, his future home.

A boon to the busy house wife who does not have time to cook. Harry Paige is installing an up-to-date delicatessen department and will soon be able to furnish you hot roast beef or veal loaf, salads, pickles, relishes and all kinds of cheese and delicacies.

UNIVERSITY HEAD TO VISIT TORRANCE

Monday, April 10th, at 6 p. m., Dr. Rufus Bernard Von Klein Smid will be the dinner guest at the First M. E. Church. The dinner will be served at 50c per plate. Dr. Van Klein Smid, who recently came to the University of Southern California, held the presidency of the University of Arizona, preceding his arrival in California; and preceding his presidency at Arizona, he held a similar position at Depaw University. With his wide experience as the presidency of three great universities, he bears the reputation of being one of America's foremost educators. In addition to this last year, President Von Klein Smid was in South America, as the special envoy of the United States government to the Pan American republics. Those who have had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Von Klein Smid agree that he delivers a very pregnant address in words that are most pleasing to hear. Reservations for plates may be made at the residence of Mrs. Campbell, No. 2 Park Terrace, or Mrs. Tompkins, Gramercy street, or with church members.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF TORRANCE

"The Church of the Open Bible."
The order of services for Sunday evening will be as follows:
1. Song service by choir and congregation, 7:30.
2. "James J. Jeffries, Evangelist," a discussion by the pastor of Jeffries liberal view of God.
3. Special music.
4. Sermon: "Will there be any tears in Heaven?"
5. Ordinance of Baptism will be administered.

MORNING SERVICE

The pastor will continue his Three Hour Sermon on the general theme, "A Superior Journey." Bring your Bible. Scripture reading will be from the Book of Revelation.

BIBLE SCHOOL

Mr. H. B. Transchell, an experienced chorister, will train the children of the Bible School in congregational singing. The time is 9:30. Come, and bring the children, and enjoy the singing. Mr. A. G. Solomon is the superintendent.

"Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all to stand."—Eph. 6:13.
Rev. Stanley H. Thorpe, Pastor.

PASSION WEEK SERVICES

The Easter week services for the First M. E. Church have been arranged with care. The purpose of the meetings is not so much an effort to win church members, although they are always welcome. But it is primarily an effort to recharge the spiritual batteries of those who attend. Therefore the earnest and cordial invitation is extended to everyone regardless of creed or sect or religious conviction to attend these services. Bring your own creed with you; advertise your sect, but go with the determination that you will serve your Creator and humanity more efficiently in your own church, and if not in your own, in one that you shall choose.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES

James J. Jeffries, at one time champion prize fighter of the world, now an evangelist, is reported to hold a very liberal view of God. His so-called "Code" will be frankly discussed by the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Torrance Sunday evening, March 26th, in the light of God's Word. You are welcome.

TO MAKE HENDRIE TIRES

A gang of men are at work at the Hendrie Rubber Factory this week and the plant is being refitted for building of tires. Dick Staplefeld is in charge of the work and it is thought a large output of automobile tires will be put on the market next month as the result of resumption of work here. The plant has been shut down for several years.

BISHOP LEONARD TO SPEAK

Bishop Adna Wright Leonard will be the speaker at a mass meeting to be held at Bovard Auditorium, Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, located at University avenue and West 35th street, Los Angeles. This meeting is in the interest of the Wright bill before the people of California. Americans, who believe in the constitution of the United States, should be there. Officers of state and civic governments should be bound to enforce the laws of our national government. That is true Americanism. The present lawlessness should alarm all good American citizens, and it should challenge them to assert their interest in righteousness.

LADIES' AID MEETING

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church had a very enjoyable and enthusiastic meeting at the home of Mrs. Tompkins, Tuesday afternoon. There was a large attendance with several new members. Delicious refreshments were served. Their regular meeting day is the third Tuesday of each month. All ladies are welcome, so if you have never visited us plan to come next time.
