EXPOSED!

John E. Coult's mystified millions of people by sawing a lady in half with a giant saw in full view of the audience in America's leading vaudeville theatres.

How is it done? The mysterious feat which has puzzled the entire world is exposed in the most sensational and thrilling film of the year. Torrance Theatre, Thursday and Friday, May 25-26.

I. O. O. F. NOTES

The regular meeting of the Triple City Lodge No. 333 I. O. O. F. was held Tuesday evening in the Masonic Hall. Visiting brothers from San Pedro gave interesting talks and Brother Ernest Brumpton gave a skeleton report of the doings at the grand lodge, which he will fill in later. He also gave quite an interesting account of the Odd Fellows' orphanage and old folks' home.

A memorial service will be held in the Lomita Community church Sunday, June 18, and will be conducted by Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. In other words, the pastor, singers, organist and ushers will be Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Keep this date in mind, as you are all cordially invited to attend.

COMING

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, May 21, 22, 23. "Torrance in Film."

Mrs. Amel Anderson and Mrs. S. H. Thorpe were guests Wednesday of Mrs. M. Elliott of Gardena.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Pierson and son of Los Angeles were week-end guests of Mrs. Hannah Pierson.

Mrs. Geo. Carl and Mr. and Mrs. Richards and daughter of Los Angeles were Lomita business visitors Wednesday, and also called on Mrs. Joe Stone in Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Brown, formerly of Arlington avenue, Torrance, are now located at 6302 South San Pedro street, Los Angeles, where they are engaged in the grocery business. Torrance friends join in sending congratulations and wish them success in their new enterprise.

LAUGH AHOY! JOY AHOY!

Ship ahoy! Laugh ahoy! Joy ahoy! Heave, ho, for the Torrance Theatre, lads (and lassies, too), for Harold Lloyd has never had such a comedy as "A Sailor-Made Man," four solid reels of the cleanest, brightest, merriest fun imaginable. In fact, it even surpasses imagination. Yesterday's audiences at the Torrance Theatre found difficulty in catching their breath for the next onslaught of mirth. It will remain three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 25, 26 and 27. It is impossible to do justice in a review to the new Lloyd Associated Exhibitors comedy feature, for its fun defies cold type, just as the taste of a delicious tidbit or the sensation of a tickle defies description. Its story is human, its titles are humorous, its settings of an Oriental city, harem and palace are lavish and spectacular; the battleship scenes are authentic.

The story tells of Lloyd as the bored heir to twenty millions, who knows nothing about work and who joins the navy to make good with his sweetheart's dad, and then, in the end, rescues the girl from the wild Maharajah of a fictitious country. Mildred Davis, of course, is the girl. A special word of praise is earned by Noah Young as the roughneck gob and pal of Lloyd.

Mrs. Mary J. Babcock and Mrs. E. W. Babcock of South Gramercy left Tuesday for their old home at Cheyenne, Wyoming. Mrs. E. W. Babcock was called east by the illness of her father. They expect to be gone two months.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Brown of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess and sons motored last week end to Tehachapi and visited Mr. and Mrs. Fess' fruit ranch near there.

Wm. Bruere of Fresno, brother of Mrs. N. A. Leake arrived Wednesday evening to stay for the summer. He is just out of Berkeley, where he studied electrical engineering, and he has accepted a position with the Edison Company.

Christ Episcopal Mission services. Morning prayer and sermon in the Torrance Theatre at 9:00 o'clock Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. McVey kindly giving the theatre and Mrs. Rinaldo giving her services at the organ, and who is also forming a choir for this occasion. Services will be held here each Sunday in the future at the same hour. T. P. Swift, rector in charge of this mission. Topic: "Capital and Labor."

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The tenth annual meeting of the Southern California District R. N. of A. will be held at Long Beach, Cal., May 24, 1922, at Eagle Hall, 317 Broadway. Members and officers are requested to be present. Morning session at 10:30. Important session at 1:30. Class of adoption at 7:30. All caring to go call the Oracle. Phone 523.
