The two weeks vacation granted W. M. Sedgley, a Lomita resident of East Pine street, was profitably spent in improving his home here, and it's worth your while to view this acre tract. Mr. Sedgley is employed by the city in Wilmington, and most of his spare hours are devoted to adding improvements to his Pine street residence.

XMAS PRESENT FOR YOU

All owners of automobiles should register their names with C. M. Smith of the Lomita Filling Station, P. O. Bldg., and receive a useful Christmas present for their car. It's something that you will be proud of and is a useful gift. Handy to have on the road—as it will get you home.—Adv.

LOMITA HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Of course we never intend to, but we just had to go and see why not. "Don't Ever Marry" was the sad tale of a young man who had the worst time marrying the girl of his dreams. If we had to go through as many scrapes as he did, I am afraid very few of us would marry. The play was very good and the introduction of the rubber neck wagon was fine humor.

The pictures are getting better, and we certainly enjoy them. There was also a Mutt and Jeff comedy.

NEW PUPILS

During the week two new pupils have entered Lomita schools. Arthur Theda, B-2 has come from Laurel school and Elvia Pollock B-9 has entered from San Pedro high school. Walter Luck A-8 has returned to Long Beach.

J. H. C.

The J. H. C. are eagerly waiting the time that they are to leave on their camping trip.

The destination has been changed from the San Bernardino Mountains to San Dimas canyon beyond Glendora, which is nearer than the former destination.

The hikers will leave the morning of December 27th and return on the evening of December 29th.

Everyone is looking for a delightful time and no one will be disappointed.

ENTERTAINMENTS TODAY

There will be a vaudeville tonight at the school auditorium, which is a final effort of the J. H. C. to raise the necessary funds for their mountain trip.

The vaudeville will have a varied program which should and will please everyone.

Everybody is asked to come and back the school and the J. H. C. The admission is 25 cents.

THE LADY WAS SURPRISED

Unobserved and unannounced, the president of a church society entered the composing room of a newspaper just in time to hear these words from the "boss" printer: "Billy, go to the Devil and tell him to finish that 'murder' he began this morning. Then, 'kill' William J. Bryan's youngest grandchild, and dump the 'Sweet Angel of Mercy' into the hell box. Then make up that 'Naughty Parisian Actress' and lock up 'The Lady in her Boudoir.'" Horrified, the good woman fled, and now her children wonder why they are not allowed to play with the printer's youngster. —Philadelphia Ledger.

Nelson H. Reeve, $300 and $500 houses, Torrance.—Adv.

We've observed that there's more notice taken of one typographical error in the paper than there is in a whole column that's correct.

Maybe, after all, President-elect Harding means by "nomalety" the days when you could get a decent meal in a restaurant for a quarter.

MY BIG STRONG BROTHER

I want to tell you about my big Strong Brother.

He fights my battles for me. He protects me daily from millions of knockout blows.

He has the strength of a Samson; he delights in speed like the winds; and among his kind he lives to the ripe old age of Methuselah. He prides himself on working just as hard in his old age as in his youth.

Damon and Pythias were not closer friends than he and I. Separated we cannot feel the keen joy of life and work.

Together we are happy. He is the Diamond Casing. We are the Diamond Tire.

It costs nothing to feed us for we eat nothing but mileage—and we confess to a mighty big appetite for that.

So buy my Big Brother, too. Put me inside of him. Give us a little "Free Air" and watch us work for you.
