With twenty other of his conferees of the Ellis Club, Mr. Chas. Curtis took part in the Pageant at the Charity Ball given at the Hotel Ambassador Monday evening. About $10,000 was realized for the benefit of the little sufferers at the children's Hospital.

The Paiges spent Easter in Los Angeles with friends where they had the pleasure of listening to John Smallman of Boston and his choir in Stainer's, "The daughter of Palrus," which they themselves have sung in, in Boston. Also in the evening they were charmed with the trained voices of the big choir and soloists under the finished directing of Mr. John Van Pelt at Trinity Auditorium, in Gaul's "Holy City."

CENTRAL CHURCH CHOIR GIVE CREDITABLE RENDITION OF CANTATA

The chorus choir of Central church deserves some special recognition for the most splendid rendition of the Easter Cantata "Redemption Song," on Easter Sunday night. The church was filled to capacity and the singers received a hearty, though silent, support from every listener. Mrs. P. G. Briney as director showed her ability in the position she holds and Mr. Van Hellen, at the piano gave the chorus the necessary support for a good rendition of such a work. The soloists, Mrs. Laven, as obligate soprano, Mrs. Neelands, soprano, Mrs. Briney, alto, Mr. Wm. Collum and Mr. Chas. Curtis, tenors and Mr. Webster, bass, deserve special mention for the most excellent manner in which each handled their part. The ladies sextette, composed of Mrs. Neelands, Mrs. Van Hellen soprano; Mrs. Laven and Miss Spreng second soprano; and Mrs. Bath and Mrs. Briney, altos, was one of the most attractive numbers and was well rendered. Taken as a whole the music was beautiful and inspiring throughout and the audience was disappointed because the end came too soon. Mrs. Van Hellen as superintendent of music says that some good things are in store for music lovers of Torrance through this able chorus and their capable director.

CHAUTAUQUA
April 14 - 15 - 16 - 17 - 18 - 19 - 1921
In Two Weeks the Torrance Chautauqua will take place

This is a great announcement for the children, the grown-ups, young and old, as the entertainments, the musical features and the lecture platform, will surpass anything in the previous history of Chautauquas.

The tickets have been distributed to all subscribers, the school children and others who are interested in making this year's Assembly a big success. The ticket sale has been up to the present very good and I would kindly ask those subscribers that have not sold their quota to make a special effort this coming week to dispose of them. All merchants and both drug stores have tickets for sale. Students and children's tickets are distributed by Prof. Barnette of the Torrance High School. Programs will be out for distribution next week.

W. T. KLUSSMAN,
(Chairman Executive Committee Torrance Chautauqua.)
APRIL 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 1921.
