Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes and family were Sunday dinner guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bartlett, of Torrance, Sunday.

HIGH-CLASS SHOE HOSPITAL

Mr. Dave Hoffman, the popular shoe shop proprietor on El Prado, Torrance, is reaching out into the surrounding territory, and the people who appreciate the high quality of work done in the Hoffman Shop are insistent that Dave can make old shoes better than new. Patrons may send their work by mail and they will be repaired and returned at once, with quality of work guaranteed. Just try this high-class shop and you will continue as a regular customer.—Advertisement.

ARMY TENTS ALL OVER LOMITA

Look for the little brown army tents which are placed in all the stores and business houses for the purpose of receiving your contribution toward framing the service flag and Liberty loan flags, which, when framed, will be hung in the State Bank of Lomita. Please help to preserve the service flag of our boys who went "over there."

ODD FELLOWS GO TO SANTA ANA

Ten members of the Triple City Odd Fellows Lodge went to Santa Ana Saturday evening and met eight hundred lodge members from all the surrounding towns. Eighty-five candidates were put through the different degrees. The Redlands lodge put on the first degree, Redondo Beach the second and Oxnard the third. This order has the reputation of having the best team in California.

Before the meeting the candidates were roped together and paraded through the streets. A royal banquet was served. They began serving at 10 o'clock, and were still serving at a very late hour when our local men left for home. The party included Ed. Brumpton, Chas. Hatfield, Alex McPhail, G. M. Lewis, J. W. Hanselman, Geo. Straub, L. M. Pollock and J. Beckham from Lomita, Ed. Curran of Torrance and Mr. Link from Harbor City.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETING TONIGHT

The regular monthly business meeting of the society has been called for this (Friday) evening by the president, Miss Edwina Nelson. Many important matters will be up for discussion, including the appointment of the nominating committee.

Much to the dismay of the Lomita young people, San Pedro defeated them last Sunday evening in the Four Square contest by scoring 165 points against 100 by Lomita. This reduces Lomita's lead to a bare fifteen points. A new plan has therefore been worked out by the contest manager, Miss Thomas. This entire society has been divided into ten squares, each square having an allotted task to perform within the next month. All the squares that attain their goals will be entertained free of charge at the Four Square dinner, which will close the month's efforts.

The Leader's Square is—Lona Mauer, Lois Plumb, Dawson Trotman, Richard Clark.

It shall be their duty to provide four different kinds of meeting during the month of December.

The Members' Square is—Louise Johnson, Margaret Plumb, La Veta Cook, Henning Franzen.

They shall bring in eight new members.

The Square to give special help to the pastor consists of Mary Wilkinson, Mrs. Miller, Rachel Cotton, Mildred Trotman.

Four times during the month they shall give special aid if they are admitted free to the banquet.

The Family Altar Square is—Birdie Akridge, Wallace Richey, Louise Cotton, Lenore Marsh.

This committee will try to establish four family altars in Lomita homes.

The Quiet Hour Square is—Bonita Barror, Emma Hatfield, Eleanor Marks, Ruth Collins.

They shall sign up eight quiet hour comrades.

The Pocket Testament Square is—Allan Grant Erwin Patterson, Charles Hatfield, Preston Roberts.

If they earn their nits they will have to sign up eight pocket testamentors.

The C. E. World Square is—Lela O'Quinn, Helen MacDougall, Evelyn Mack, Mr. Clark.

They have four subscriptions to get.

The Tenth Legion Square is—Lydia Smith, May Archer, Lorna Thistle, Harry Mack.

The Study Class Square is—Amy Amberg, Nellie Gleason, Miss Mills, Frances Alanac.

This committee must hold four study classes.

The Help Rendered Square is—Edwina Nelson, Janet Marks, Ruth Clark, Ruth Akerson.

They shall outline two methods in which the society can give help to the poor or to those in hospitals.
