et Million Volts s Through heir Bodies

nts have just been com... W. G. Partridge, repre... the greater service de... the Southern California... any, to give their re... trical demonstration on... of Monday, Nov. 5, at 8... region hall, Torrance.

which the men in charge take the immense voltage through their bodies without harm. This voltage runs over a million.

This is being shown under auspices of Torrance Chamber of Commerce, and a very good attendance is desired.

In addition to the electrical demonstration there will be about fifteen or twenty minutes of "magic" by Prof. Rearick, who is well skilled in his art. Also a reel or two of moving pictures, showing California's most beautiful mountain scenery.

Admission is free. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this exhibition.

Dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gay of Arlington avenue were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rieker and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sullivan, of Hollywood. The Gays and their guests were old friends and neighbors in Waterbury, Vt.

Top's Bakery for the Highest Service By THE MYSTERIOUS COWBOY TOP'S BREAD THE PINNACLE of QUALITY HE TOP'S THEM ALL IF IT'S BAKED LITE IT'S BAKED RITE

A native of that unusually thrifty and productive country, Denmark, a baker for twenty-six years, a public-spirited citizen and a business man of conscientious impulse—that, in a word, sums up the qualities of our newest and best baker—Mr. H. P. Top, proprietor of Top's Bakery, opened recently in the Paige Quality Grocery Store.

Mr. Top was in Oakland for five years, where he was prominently identified with his trade. It was only in recent months that he decided to motor from Oakland to San Diego to look over the country and to gain a little recreation. And so he came, he saw, and Torrance conquered him. He got no farther than this city, which appealed to him from the moment he laid eyes upon it.

Top's Bakery is in immaculate and modern premises: it is the home of the purest and most palatable of breads; that staff of life is produced by a man who is the real champion of wholesome bread, made of the best ingredients to be procured.

Mr. Top has equipped his new baking home with all of the most up-to-date adjuncts. There is a sanitation and order about his place that sounds a keynote of quality and conscientious service. The new bakery is gaining public favor for its wholesome and quality products, and we predict for Mr. Top an ever-increasing patronage.
