Chicken Thief Picks Tough One

Mrs. Alfred Gourcier of South Gramercy was aroused from her slumbers last Saturday night by a noise in the rear of their lot and the neighbors' yard, but did not think much about it, until she heard a chicken squall. Upon investigating the next morning, found a 4-year-old hen missing.

Mrs. F. J. Christopher of the Myrtle Apartments, received news of the death of her father, W. W. Patton of Hemet, Monday. Mr. Patton was known in Torrance, having visited his daughter quite frequently. Funeral services were held Wednesday, at Santa Ana.

Miss Mary Roberts was most unfortunate Sunday morning, when she accidentally slashed her arm just above the elbow with a knife, in her father's restaurant. It was necessary to take four stitches in dressing the wound.

Afternoon Club Is Entertained Friday

Mrs. W. C. Von Hagen entertained the Torrance Afternoon Club at her home on Gramercy avenue, Friday afternoon. Five Hundred was played and prizes awarded to Mrs. Joe Stone, first; Mrs. McManus, second; Mrs. H. Barnette, consolation. Dainty refreshments were served and a delightful afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Sarabell Tomkins has a position, in the printing department of the Union Tool Company. Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. Fred Lessing, and Mrs. Joe Stone, were Los Angeles visitors, Tuesday.

Mrs. E. O. Straub attended the funeral of Edward Miller, a friend, in Los Angeles, Tuesday. Miss Ileen Straub returned Sunday from Alamitos Beach, where she and her grandmother, Mrs. L. A. Crechet, sojourned for two weeks.

Missourians to Gather on Sept. 21

The tens of thousands of former Missourians and their friends are called to gather at the record-breaking picnic and rally to be held at beautiful Lincoln Park, Los Angeles, Thursday, Sept. 21.

The program will be to your liking, and in addition there will be races and contests for prizes. Come early. Bring baskets, filled with good things to eat, and make this a day of joyful reunion with friends from the old home state. There will be a register for every

J. A. Davidson, builder, of Vista Highlands, has almost completed a beautiful home for Mr. and Mrs. John Young, on Susanna street.

T. B. Bartlett, noted for "Tom's Candy Kisses," returned Monday from the Pageant of Progress at Exposition Park, where he had a booth. He is enlarging his store by adding a soda fountain, and along with his light lunches has waffle irons. A large electric sign will be installed in the front, soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sotters and son Donald, arrived last week-end from Long Mount, Colo., and are staying at the Brighton Apartments. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kents, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kents of Spurlin Court, Sunday. They were all neighbors in Colorado.

Mrs. Mary E. Perkins of South Gramercy, left Tuesday for Susanville, Cal., where she will visit indefinitely with her children. Before returning she will also visit in Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Black are staying in her home until she returns.

county from Atchison to Pemiscot, and from Clark to McDonald. Spread the news by word of mouth, writing and phoning.

Minnesotans to Picnic September 23

The picnic and reunion of former residents of Minnesota will be held in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, all day Saturday, Sept. 23. Remember the date. There will be county registers and headquarters, silk souvenir badges, coffee, and popular program of songs, and addresses. Bring your basket dinners and enjoy a long, happy day. Pass the word along to every Gopher you know. Talk, write, phone.
