KEYSTONE NOTES

The Lincoln school gave a holiday entertainment and box social at Day's Hall, Keystone, Friday evening, December 15. The attendance numbered about 125.

A fine program was given by the children, and much credit must be given the teachers, Mrs. Stamps and Mrs. Rogers. Much merriment was caused by a cake given away to the handsomest man in the hall by a popular vote. Dad Bartell won the cake, Bill Rogers running a close second. Mr. Bartell put the cake up at auction, which sold for $2.50 to Mr. Russell, who cut the cake and sold the pieces. The proceeds amounted to $33.00, and are to be used to purchase a phonograph for the school. Aside from the entertainment given by the children, the following program was rendered:

Piano and whistling solo—Mr. Moseley.

Vocal duet—The Misses Feizel.

Reading—Mrs. Russell.

Oboe solo, accompanied by Miss Feizel—Mr. Brady.

Song—Mrs. Moseley.

Bagpipe number—Mr. Brady and sons.

The hall and orchestra were donated.

SIDELIGHTS ON LINCOLN SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

Dad Bartell is wearing a new hat. Suppose the old one is too small.

Bill Rogers has a lot of explaining to do as to why he bought three boxes before he was satisfied.

We all wondered why E. K. Stevens paid so much for a certain box, until we saw his lunch partner.

Nuff sed.

Mr. Feizel seemed to know just which box had the most fried chicken.

Mrs. Stevens' voting was brisk on the handsomest man; now the Mr. is trying to figure out which one.

Mr. Moseley lost out on the cake, but was by far the most popular.

Mr. Russell is looking a bit pale. Hope the Mrs. is not feeding him that mince meat she told about.

Mr. Stevens is inquiring when there will be another box social. Wonder why?

Who says Mr. Bastings can't eat cake?

PACIFIC ELECTRIC DANCE

The Pacific Electric club held their biennial dance last Saturday night in American Legion Hall, Torrance, when over 300 attended. Gay and lively music soon had everyone happy, and a royal good time was the result.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served late in the evening. Employees of the P. E. shops from Torrance and Los Angeles made up the crowd.
