

TEACHERS TO ENTERTAIN AT P. T. A. MEET.

Program to be Featured On Lawn and In Auditorium.

The regular meeting of the P.-T. A. will be held at the school auditorium Wednesday, January 10, at 2:30 o'clock, sharp.

The president, Mrs. F. H. Clark, requests a full attendance. As many as possible are invited to take part in the cake making contest in Los Angeles January 19.

The following is a copy of a letter from Kate Brew Vaughn, which will explain the object of the contest:

November 29, 1922. Mrs. F. H. Clark, Box 915, Torrance, Calif. Dear Madam: You are doubtless aware of the lack of funds on the part of the Federation of Parent-Teachers' associations to supply the undernourished children in the schools with sufficient quantity of milk.

Very shortly we are holding a cake contest at the Evening Express auditorium. We are publishing four recipes for standard cakes and we are offering wonderful prizes in each division. One hundred dollars cash will be given for the best loaf cake. A kitchen cabinet will be given for the first prize for the best layer cake.

You can help in two ways: First, by interesting the members of your Parent-Teachers' association in the contest, reading out the rules and calling many of them to enter the contest and then interest yourself in bringing people to the sale.

Yours very truly, KATE BREW VAUGHN.

Show For Legion Well Patronized

The generous patronage of Torrance residents and the unusually fine weather, combined last week to fill to overflowing the Torrance theater, when "Skin Deep," the great patriotic Ince picture was given for the benefit of the local Post of the American Legion.

On Thursday and again the following night every seat in the house was taken by friends and members of the Post, and as the true meaning of the wonderful picture was unfolded and its application to the veterans of the late war understood, the audience broke into applause time and again.

With his customary showmanship Manager McVey surrounded the picture with the necessary atmosphere, both by the music rendered and the prologue given by the Boy Scouts preceding the main feature of the evening. The latter was a typical scene from a Boy Scout's camp, and was as artistic as it was unexpected.

Members of the Legion were loud in their praise of the picture, both from a patriotic and educational standpoint, and of the liberal patronage of the Torrance public.

To Open Model Boarding House

One of the most homelike and up-to-date bachelor quarters to be erected in this section will be opened to the public tomorrow when Mrs. Farley Johnson, former proprietress of the McKinley Inn, will invite the Torrance public to visit her new boarding house on Cabrillo street, south of Carson.

The building was erected by Charles Vonderahe expressly for Mrs. Johnson, and both the owner and lessee have planned to make it a place that will attract and hold the custom of single men who desire cleanliness, a home-like atmosphere, and excellent table service.

Recognized as an expert in the art of cooking, Mrs. Johnson's first care for the comfort of her guests, was the large, airy dining-room adjoining a spotlessly clean and well arranged kitchen. The balance of the lower floor is taken up with three bedrooms that will be occupied by Mrs. Johnson, her daughter, and the former's sister.

On the upper floor are nine 12x14 bedrooms, containing two three-quarter-beds, each, hot and cold running water, and modern new furniture. This floor also has a large bathroom for the free use of the guests.

KEEPING STEP WITH THE AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting on Jan. 8th at 7:30 p. m., in the Club room at Legion Hall. This will be a very important meeting and every member is urgently requested to be present.

The members of the unit who find it possible to attend the football game Saturday afternoon will be asked to assist in selling tags on the grounds.

THE NEW YEAR'S DANCE The Holiday Dance given by the American Legion Auxiliary on last Saturday evening was one of the most successful ever given by that organization. Socially it was the best with the Christmas colors and tinsel and pepper boughs.

The music was furnished by McKee's Orchestra and at 12 o'clock, when dancing stopped, not a couple had left and everyone proclaimed it the end of a Perfect Holiday week. Already the Patrons of the American Legion Auxiliary Dances are asking when the next one will be, and as the aim of the committees for these dances is to please the people of Torrance we are always ready to give a dance when the people want it.

J. N. Wilson Buys Quality Meat Market

John N. Wilson, formerly of Redlands, but of late a resident of Torrance, has purchased the Quality Meat Market from W. Roney Lee and assumed charge Tuesday morning last.

Mr. Wilson was for many months meat cutter for the Paige Cash Grocery, when it was situated in its first stand—the store now occupied by the H. & S. Electric Co. Therefore, he is no stranger to many of the housewives of Torrance, who have learned that they can place dependence upon what he says in regard to meats.

Having been a meat cutter of long experience, whose trade was first learned in Boston, Mr. Wilson stands ready to send out orders in any style desired; should there be any housewives here from Boston or vicinity who may order their chops "frenched" or who desire a wonderful "crown roast" for dinner, they may rest assured Mr. Wilson says, that they will get just what they order.

This completes the association of three experts in various lines of foodstuffs—Mr. Gordon Groves serving Quality Bread, rolls and pastries in the bakery department; Mr. Paige serving the finest of high class groceries, the newest things in good foods, fresh fruits and vegetables; and now Mr. Wilson serving No. 1 steer beef, lamb, veal, pork and poultry. All of which bids fair to put Paige's Quality Market in an enviable class by itself, where quality counts and where quality is long remembered after the price has been forgotten.

The affiliation of three stores in one big market, under one roof, affords one of the best shopping plans in the Southwest. The particular housewife and mother will do well to visit this Quality Market every morning and from it select those delicious appetizing foods so essential to the health and happiness of every member of the home circle.—J-5

WEEK'S PROGRAM AT THE TORRANCE THEATER

Next week's program at the Torrance theater is made up of several splendid pictures. Sunday and Monday, January 7 and 8, "Forget-Me-Not," a Metro feature, will be shown. This is a story of a girl nobody wanted—a story of what home means when you haven't one.

Doris May, in "The Understudy," comes on Tuesday, January 9. Miss May is known to most film fans as a sweet, tender little woman, who puts every ounce of herself into her acting. In this film she is the loveliest little happer of them all. She portrays the simple country wren who becomes a brilliant bird of paradise and wins happiness and a husband through her antics. You will like this picture.

On the 10th Hoot Gligson, the "ridin' fool," shows that still water runs deep, and when he breaks loose he proves it with a vengeance in "Ridin' Wild."

On Thursday and Friday, "One Week of Love" will be shown. This is a picture which shows mighty railroad scenes, an airplane crash, a railroad wreck, drama, pathos, romance. It is lavishly staged, perfectly directed, and tells one of the most dramatic stories ever written.

On Saturday, "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" will be presented. This is a giant drama of human hearts and shows how beautiful and how wonderful is mother love. It is a picturization of the age-old song. It is a picture of hope and despair, of dreams and the ashes of dreams—a picture of poignant appeal that reaches deep into the human heart.

TORRANCE SCHOOL NOTES

School opened Tuesday with many more new pupils added to the daily attendance.

The night school attendance, prior to Christmas vacation, dropped off, due to the rush. We wish to issue this word of warning to those wishing to continue in evening classes, that the attendance must remain above a certain number in each class, or the superintendent will find it necessary to discontinue the classes where the interest is lacking.

The entire board of education, accompanied by the superintendent, Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, and architect, made a visit to Torrance Tuesday of last week. The object of the visit being to locate the new grammar school, and looking after other school matters pertaining to the new buildings. The architects are rushing the drawings for the new building as rapidly as possible.

Assistant Superintendent Arthur Gould made his regular visit Wednesday to the Torrance school, and reports that all of Los Angeles school sections in the city are growing with such leaps and bounds that the superintendent's office can see no way of meeting the teacher needs the coming semester.
