

Sunday Traffic Startles Officials

Motor traffic through Torrance last Sunday was the heaviest in the history of the city. Seventy-two machines were counted passing one point in five minutes by Marshal Anderson. The steady stream of machines did not vary but very little from 10 a. m. until 9:30 in the evening. Some, however, could not resist the temptation to "step on it" when they struck a fine piece of pavement, and Chief Anderson tagged nine of them. Most of them put up $10 for bail.

Mrs. J. A. Young is just recovering from a severe attack of poison oak contracted New Year's Day in Topanga Canyon. F. J. Young of Cota Avenue and D. G. McDonald of Compton, were hunting over Sunday at Lancaster.

CENTRALIA VISITORS FETED

An enjoyable affair and one that impressed upon strangers the well-known hospitality of Torrance, was a luncheon and dance given by Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins in honor of C. E. Raymond, owner of the Day & Night Garage building, under lease to the host.

In addition to the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, the party was made up of Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins, Frank and Lee Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Skillings, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stanley, and Miss Mabel Stanley, the latter being from Long Beach, and the entire party calling Centralia, Wash., their "home town."

W. F. McClure, state engineer of Sacramento, was the week-end guest of City Engineer of Torrance. These two engineers are old friends and many interesting subjects relative to highway construction were discussed, making the visit mutually enjoyable.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.
