

P-T. A. LUNCHEON

Thursday afternoon the home of Mrs. Fred Hansen, 2063 Carson street, was the scene of a very delightful gathering when the members of the losing teams and the officers of the Parent-Teachers' association gave a luncheon in honor of the winning team, consisting of Mrs. Fitzhugh, Mrs. Lessing, Mrs. Lancaster, and Mrs. Sach, in the membership drive held recently. The table was beautifully decorated with African daisies. Places were marked with dainty hand-painted place cards, the work of Miss Helen Tiffany. After the delicious luncheon of salad, olives, baked ham, scalloped potatoes, hot rolls, jellies, cream pie and coffee had been enjoyed, matters pertaining to the welfare of the school were discussed and the afternoon devoted to music and a social time. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames Frank Clark, Nettie Steinhilber, H. M. Tolson, J. M. Fitzhugh, Ralph B. Marsh, Willis M. Brooks, John Gay, J. R. Sach, John Guyon, Lena A. Miller, H. E. Currier, Fred Lessing, David Barnard, George H. Tiffany, J. S. Lancaster, Mark Wright, Fred Hansen, James H. Milburn, Masters Freddie Hansen and Van Ness Barnard.

FAMOUS NOVEL FILMED

The celebrated novel "Blood and Sand," by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, author of the tremendously successful "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," has been picturized by Paramount, and will open at the Torrance Theatre for two days, beginning Sunday, February 25. Rodolph Valentino is the star and Lila Lee and Nita Naldi are featured.

This is an announcement of interest to book-lovers and those who follow the artistic advance of the photoplay. For "Blood and Sand," an exotic, colorful story of Spain, is said to be even more compellingly interesting than was its great predecessor by the same author. "Blood and Sand" has another unusual point of appeal in that it is the first starring picture of Rodolph Valentino, whose rise to film success has been without precedent. It is a Fred Niblo production, directed by the man who made "The Three Musketeers." Assurance that the Ibañez novel has been correctly interpreted is offered with the presentation of June Mathis as adaptor. She wrote the scenario for "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." Mr. Valentino is supported in "Blood and Sand" by Lila Lee and Nita Naldi, and a picked company of Paramount stock players.

COLORADOANS PICNIC

All who ever lived in Colorado are invited to meet for the great annual picnic reunion, all day Saturday, March 3, 1923, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles. Come as early as you can and spend the day with friends. We will have county registers and headquarters, so you can find the old neighbors even with ten thousand present.

There will be a brief program opening about 2 o'clock, but the main purpose will be to have a good time. We want to see all the tourists and visitors from the old home state, as well as our residents, so as to make this the greatest picnic in our history. Bring your baskets well filled and share with friends. Coffee will be served free to all who buy the silk souvenir badges.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to extend our thanks and appreciation to our many friends, neighbors, the school children, employees of the Llewellyn Iron Works, for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved son and brother. Also we wish to thank those who sent the beautiful floral decorations. MR. and MRS. EDW. QUIGLEY and Family.

Mrs. Frank Sammons attended a meeting of the presidents' council, held in Long Beach Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Concialdi and children, passed the week-end with Mrs. Concialdi's parents in Los Angeles.

ANTI-CIGARETTE BILL IS DRASTIC MEASURE
 * OLYMPIA (Wash.), Feb. 22.
 *—A severe anticigarette bill, sponsored by members of the lower house, was introduced recently. The measure would prohibit the sale and manufacture of cigarettes, wrappers or papers in this State, and would provide for the issuance of search warrants and the confiscation of cigarettes and papers wherever found.
