MACCABEE NOTES

Torrance Review No. 37 has again been honored by one of its members, Mrs. Clemma Watson, who has been elected president of the Commanders' and Past Commanders' Association. Mrs. Watson served as commander of Torrance Review two years and as lieutenant-commander for one year, and is now holding the office of past-commander. The next past commanders' meeting will be held in Pasadena some time the last of April.

The Marathon social will be held at Mrs. Jessie Reeves' Tuesday, March 6. The experience meeting will be held with the next regular meeting, Tuesday, March 13.

Mrs. Jean Guyan, Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber, Mrs. Janet Woodington, Mrs. Clemma Watson and Mrs. Mae Tomkins attended the Past Commanders' Association of the Maccabees held in Los Angeles on February 27. The Great Commander, Mrs. Minnie Aydelotte, was present and explained the plan of the great pageant to be held in Los Angeles at the great Marathon meet. The Supreme Commander, Miss Bina M. West, with her corps of supreme officers and delegates, will arrive in Los Angeles on May 23. The pageant will be put on in the Stadium May 29. It will be one of the greatest things ever witnessed in Los Angeles or Torrance.

Mrs. Willis Brooks is expecting her mother here from Independence, Cal., soon, as she and Mr. and Mrs. Levy, sister and brother of Mrs. Brooks, were victims of the tornado that swept that part of the country two weeks ago. The storm demolished the Levy's home and destroyed the mother's home.

Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. W. W. Woodington and Mrs. Ernest Tomkins motored to Los Angeles Tuesday to attend a meeting of the Maccabees in regard to the national convention to be held in Los Angeles in the spring.

P. G. Briney's Sunday school class of the Central Evangelical church, composed of boys, pupils of the high school, motored to Antelope Valley and through the valley to a ranch at the back of Mt. Wilson. Leaving Torrance in two automobiles at 7:30 Friday night, they arrived at the ranch about 4:30 Saturday morning, where they camped until about 4 o'clock Sunday when they left for home. The boys had a grand time in the snow. Coasting upon a sled which Mr. Briney made was one of the amusements. Besides coasting they waded in the snow until, upon their return to camp their clothes were hung upon a line and the boys wrapped in blankets and they sat around the camp fire while the clothes dried. This is only one of the many good times planned by the class. Those enjoying the trip were Walter Juvor, Francis Gilbert, Dee Williamson, Bob Lessing, Carl Burmaster, Edward Price, Phillips Brooks, George Watson and P. G. Briney.

Oyster Supper For Forum Monday

Directors and officials of the Chamber of Commerce are predicting that the public Forum meeting to be held in Legion hall next Monday night, March 5, will be one of the best attended and most enjoyable affairs of its kind ever given in Torrance.

Their prediction is based on the fact that several matters of the utmost importance, including the playground, will be brought up; that several out-of-town speakers of note will be heard and last but by no means least, a free oyster supper will be served all who attend.

Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Stevens and their guests, Mrs. Gault and son, of Los Angeles, were dinner guests Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stone.
