

AW, WHAT'S THE USE
By L. F. Van Zelm
© Western Newspaper Union

Hilda Was a Good Girl, but Oh, What Intelligence!

CALLS IT A DAY
Mrs. Homebody—Going now?
Gas Fitter—Yes'm, I'm through for the day. And you'd better turn off the gas in your range when you get time. The whistle blew just as I was about to do it myself.

RADIO RALF AND HIS FRIENDS---
By JACK WILSON
Copyright 1923 by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

The Younger Generation

WHAT YOU NEED IS A VERNIER ON YOUR VARIABLE CONDENSER THEN YOU CAN TUNE IN FINER

AW GEE, YOUR ANTENNA IS TOO LONG FOR A 360 METER WAVE LENGTH

GEE, WE GOT STATION F.R.X.W. ON OUR REGENERATIVE SET WITH TWO STAGES AUDIO FREQUENCY

WHOT IN SAM HILL ARE THOSE BOYS TALKIN' ABOUT, HENRY?

DANGED! IF I CAN UNDERSTAND 'EM, MARK

THOSE SPARR HAMS ARE KILLING IT, AINT THEY?

WHY DONT YOU TRY A VARIO COUPLER INDUCTANCE

What Will Be the Outcome?

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL
By Charles Sughroe
© Western Newspaper Union

Going and Coming

SHE'S SENSIBLE

"Would you love me as much if I didn't have this lil' speedster?"
"More, I'm afraid to love now, for fear of a spill."

SELF-TAUGHT

Miss Pfitt—My poor mother always was afraid I'd become an actress.
Miss Cutter—Well, I guess she feels grateful toward you, now that she knows you won't.

SELF-TAUGHT

Lady—Poor man, I can see you've lost your sight. Have you attended a blind school?
Beggar—No, mum; I learned to do this meself.