

TORRANCE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Alabama were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip F. Hugard, 1924 Andreo avenue, Monday evening.

Bert Probert of Andreo avenue, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is much better.

The Llewellyn Iron Works is being used by the William Fox Company in making a scene for Jack Holt's new picture, "The Eleventh Hour."

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clark and family and Miss Doris Pike of Los Angeles, their house guest, visited at Laguna Beach Sunday.

Mrs. C. J. Leidorf of Cabrillo avenue visited Sunday in Long Beach with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Dayton.

BOY SCOUT RALLY

Ninety boys and many visitors were present last Saturday evening to witness a rally of the Boy Scouts of this district, held in the American Legion Hall. The different troops competed with one another in games and real scouting work. The first aid contest was the most interesting feature of the evening. This contest determined which troop should be selected to compete with San Pedro in June, and was won by Troop One. This team consisted of Geo. Watson, Earl Bacon, and Anthony Jessum. We will watch these boys closely and will expect them to bring home the laurels in June. It is a matter of pride among our boys that Torrance cannot be beaten.

The grown-ups appeared to get as much pleasure from the evening's program as did the boys. There is nothing so genuine in life as the real enthusiasm of a live American boy, and somehow it is contagious.

Eight second-class badges were presented to boys of this district, of which four came to Torrance. The advancement of the boys is the greatest encouragement to those connected with the work. When the boys stop passing tests the troop is dead, something is wrong.

Scout George Watson was awarded a first-class badge, the first awarded in this district. The boys were not the least stingy with their cheers and finished up the ceremony by carrying him around the room on their shoulders, followed by the Scouts, singing "Hall, Hall." This is one of the Scout's highest marks of distinction.

Troop Two was awarded a 100 per cent test passing pennant, and is proud of it. "Win it again next month or bust," is our slogan.

The Torrance Boy Scouts are pleased to welcome two other organizations to our town. They are the Camp Fire Girls and the Boy Rangers. We hope that our town will give these two organizations as whole-hearted support as it has given us.

We appreciate very much the many kindnesses shown us by the Business Men's Association, P. T. A., Woman's Club and other organizations, and wish to thank them. We hope to be worthy of your confidence and will do our best to do our duty to God, our country, and obey the Scout laws.

Now we stand at Boyhood's Gate, Shapeless in the hands of Fate. May our Scout laws bind us firm into men, into men.

CASTLE APARTMENT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nuckles spent the week-end in San Bernardino.

Mrs. K. Randall arrived from Arkansas to join Mr. Randall, and they have taken apartments at the Castle.
