JACKIE COOGAN FILM TO SHOW IN TORRANCE FOR THREE DAYS

The film version of one of the most successful stage plays of the past decade will come to Torrance next Sunday and Monday, when "The Bad Man," an Edwin Carewe-First National production, opens at the Torrance theatre.

Advance reports concede this to be one of the outstanding productions of the year. Holbrook Blinn, the star of the original stage version of the play, enacts the same role in the film version. Charles A. Selton, who was also a member of the original star cast, is associated with Blinn. Miss Enid Bennett, of "Robin Hood" fame, appears as the heroine and adds new laurels to her already long list of successes. Among the other well known persons in the cast are Jack Mulhall, Walter McGrath, Teddy Sampson, Harry Meyers, Stanton Heck, Thomas Delmar, Frank Lanning, and Peter Venzuela.

Idle Rich Film

How the idle rich spend their time dicing, drinking and dancing, with the men vamping the women and the women making eyes at the men, is graphically portrayed in "Daytime Wives," the sensational F. B. O. screen drama which will be shown here next Tuesday. It is presented by an unusually strong cast, including Wyndham Standing, Grace Darmond, Derelys Perdue, William Conklin, Edward Hearn, Katharine Lewis, Kenneth Gibson, and Christina Montt.

Jackie Coogan

The long-heralded Metro production, "Long Live the King," starring Jackie Coogan, will come to the Torrance theatre next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Particular interest is attached to this latest film of the young star, as it is his first production under the $1,000,000 contract which was given him recently in addition to a half-million-dollar bonus by Metro Pictures corporation. "Long Live the King" was only recently completed at Hollywood, and its engagement at the Torrance theatre is among the early dates allotted to a few houses throughout the country. From various sources the information was current that a huge sum of money was being spent in the making of this film, and recent reports definitely fix the sum as $600,000. Of this huge amount nearly two-thirds was spent on the construction of the magnificent sets which furnish the atmosphere of "Long Live the King" and which surround Jackie with regal splendor.

Johnny Fox

Little Johnny Fox, of "Covered Wagon" fame, who is next to be seen in "Blow Your Own Horn," is having one told on him. His mother asked him the other day, "Johnny, have you been fighting with that boy across the street again?" Johnny answered, "No, ma; he won't fight back any more. I had to go into the next block for this one!" "Blow Your Own Horn" will be shown at the Torrance theatre Saturday, Jan. 12.

L. O. O. F. New Year Party Big Success

The L. O. O. F. dance held New Year's eve in American Legion hall was a huge success, socially as well as financially. This last phrase is really superfluous. Everyone knows that all Odd Fellow doings are always a success.

The orchestra—Henry Davis, pianist; Floyd Wells, saxophone, and the Eads brothers with cornet and drums—furnished music that set everyone's feet to stepping out on the excellent floor.

Toward the close of the dance Floor Manager Dare announced the waltz contest, with Mrs. Ernest W. Brumpton and Messrs. Hanselman and Freeman as judges. The prizes were won by Mrs. C. O'Brien and G. N. Noble.

At whist the first prizes were won by Mrs. John Dennis and A. Symonds, and the second prizes by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Treadwell.

One hundred and seventy-five couples enjoyed the evening. Refreshments were served to all who cared to partake.

Another dance will be held in the near future, date to be announced later.
