Editor: Congratulations are due you from your readers for the masterly way you review the oil situation, both in the local field and the oily Republicans at Washington. They are sustaining their reputation for being a slick bunch now that they are so oily. Yes, they are in the grease good and plenty, and the Dems are about to put them in the frying pan. Of course the Democrats are tickled to death because they didn't happen to get any of the grease on themselves. They are more than pleased with the situation. It will enable them to take a "Fall" out of the Republican party and help some to make "McA do," but they should not get too excited over a tempest in a teapot (dome), or over the loss of a few hundred thousand in an oil lease, while we are being robbed of billions by the grafters of both parties who exploit all the great national resources—the timber, the coal, the oil, the minerals and the water power—that are the rightful heritage of this and succeeding generations. There have been millions spent in the past in no end of graft investigations. The net result has invariably been a good coat of whitewash, with no one sent to the pen and none of the loot recovered. There is one way, and one way only, in which this government can cleanse itself of the foul and festering mess—when the people take over all public utilities and operate them for the common good instead of for the profit and enrichment of the few. That, and that alone, will clean the slate and put an end to corrupt government. When we do that our Dohenys and Sinclairs will have neither the incentive nor the means to "loan" money to our public servants.

A recent guest of Mrs. E. M. Durfee at the Willis Brooks home was Dr. Willis Luther Moore of Washington, D. C. Dr. Moore, formerly chief of the government bureau, is a guest at the Raymond in Pasadena.

Francis A. Zeller, pastor.

The Sunday school begins at 9:45. The attendance is better each succeeding Sunday. The young ladies' class and the young men's class have given up their fine classrooms for the use of the primary department and are at present meeting in rooms in the parsonage. The sketching by Miss Ella Walker each Sunday is much enjoyed by all the school. The orchestra helps a lot, too. The Endeavorers are having good meetings and attendance in the prayer meeting room. Their monthly business meeting will be held in the pastor's study Friday evening of this week at 7:15. Prayer meeting is held each Wednesday evening. The orchestra rehearses Tuesday evening and the choir on Thursday evening. The pastor will speak at the morning service next Sunday at 11 on "Torrance's Greatest Opportunity"; in the evening on the theme, "Seeing Ourselves as Others See Us."

The next meeting of the Ladies' Guild will be held at the home of Mrs. W. M. Brooks, corner Eldorado and Portola, next Thursday, Feb. 7.
