

A Home to Suit Your Family

Whether your family group is large or small you can build a home of your own that will house it better than any cut and dried apartment possibly can.

You know your peculiar needs. Let one of our representatives call and he will show you plans for homes to meet those requirements.

We will take charge of the construction and planning and will arrange it so that you can pay us in the form of rent.

In a comparatively short time the home will be entirely your own.

Methodist Church
The converts are coming. These noted singers will be here next Sunday morning. They are evangelistic singers of national reputation. They will give a program of music and song that everybody ought to hear. Sunday evening there will be a Washington-Lincoln anniversary, with a memorial to the late Woodrow Wilson. G. L. Mowery, Judge King and P. G. Briney will be the speakers. Some good old patriotic songs will be the order. These representative men will have some things to say. Come out, boys, and give them the inspiration of your presence.

The Sunday school smashed all previous records last Sunday morning. Get into it now. The primary and beginners' department of the Sunday school will give an entertainment at the church next Tuesday evening. They are raising money to fit up their rooms for these bright little tots. Their own entertainment will be a delight to the public. Don't anybody miss it.

Central Evangelical Church
Francis A. Zeller, pastor.
Roy Creighton, Christian Endeavor secretary for Los Angeles county, will speak at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning. Mr. Creighton is a speaker of striking personality and has a wonderful message for all, especially the young people. Every young person in Torrance under 30 is urged to hear Mr. Creighton. The pastor will speak in the evening on the theme, "A Peculiar Peace Plan."

There will be special music by the choir, as well as excellent congregational singing, at both services. The Endeavor meets at 8:45 Sunday evening. The choir rehearses on Thursday evening; orchestra, Tuesday evening. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. The Woman's Missionary society meets Thursday afternoon, Feb. 21, at the home of Mrs. Burmaster on Encarnacion avenue.

Christ Mission, Episcopal
Rev. Thomas P. Swift in charge. Services are held, for the present, at the residence of W. T. Klusman, 2018 Carson street. Morning prayer and sermon at 9 a. m. every Sunday. Holy communion the first Sunday in the month. All are welcome. We will be glad to have the names and addresses of any Episcopalians not actively united with the mission. W. T. Klusman, warden; A. W. Handel, treasurer; Mrs. Shuard, clerk.

First Baptist Church of Torrance
Rev. J. Whitfield Green, pastor. The object of the home church is to save the souls of people steeped in sin, and this can't be done if you never go to church. Why not read these notices that are put in the paper every week for your own good, and don't delay—get right with God. You never know what minute you will be called, and if you are not ready the eternal fires of Hades await you. God says those that are not born again can not enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Everybody is welcome to our church, where Mr. Green will endeavor to show you in his evangelistic sermons that it does not do to spurn God's offer in regard to your soul. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. One hundred and fourteen last Sunday; the contest between the ladies' Bible class and Men's Brotherhood class running nip and tuck.

Morning services, 11 o'clock. Young People's union, 6:45. Evening song and evangelistic services, 7:30. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening, 7:30 o'clock.

Christian Church
American Legion hall. W. T. Adams, pastor; Scott Ludlow, superintendent Bible school.

The attendance, both in the Sunday school and in the church services, reached high-water mark last Sunday. There were two more additions to the church, making six added the last three Sundays. People are finding out about our services and are becoming interested. You will enjoy the services at the Christian church. Ours is a friendly church; you will be a stranger but once.

We are still meeting in the American Legion hall, but hope soon to have a place of our own. Come out next Sunday and worship with us. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Communion and sermon at 11 a. m. Church services at 7:30 p. m. Every member of the church ought to be out to these services next Sunday. Others are cordially invited to attend.
