TALKS BY THOSE WHO THINK

THE present profound distrust of youth is ridiculous, in the opinion of President Henry Noble MacCracken of Vassar college, noted school for girls. "What we all need is to be infected with youth," he said recently. "Then we will understand better what youth is driving at and youth will have more tolerance for Vassar what we think and say. Youth hasn't been living in a vacuum. The modern girl sees all of life that she can see. She knows a great deal about her father and mother. More, perhaps, than they know about her. She thinks a great deal about life. The girls who come here are serious about their work. All of them are doing what they want to do most. They make study a major sport. It is the business of the instructors to see that students like this sport best. We can learn a great deal from the modern girl. We do learn a great deal from her, and incidentally we learn something about her.

"We've learned that she has a fine mind, that she has originality, that she can apply herself to scholastic work with brilliant results.

"Faculties take themselves too seriously. The members are apt to be pompous, aloof, inaccessible.

"During the four years a girl is with us we try to give her the necessary equipment for her later life outside of college. If there is a protest against the college environment, she is given an opportunity to voice that protest. But we do not let her burn down a chemical laboratory. We do not give her an uncontrolled environment. We tell the students what control is needed in the laboratory; that if certain precautions are not observed definite disaster follows.

"Psychology has been showing us the way to solve many difficulties. Within the last ten years it has given us a much better understanding of things we formerly knew little about. Not only are we learning more about the study capacity of the student, but more about her physical and mental state. There is no use blaming any one when one is sick. And certainly some people are sick. Take the young girl who committed suicide the other day in New York because she was taller than the rest of the class. That girl was sick. She should not be blamed for what she did. Those are things to be guarded against. In most cases they can be prevented. That is the responsibility of the modern school. Statistics show, I think, that 80 per cent of the human race are honest; the other 20 per cent are victims of social heredity and bad environment.

"Let's get down to our jobs. Let's stop criticising the modern girl. I think one of our teachers hit the nail on the head the other day when she said that the conduct of the observed was apt to be reflected by the mind of the

DR. WILLIAM MONTGOMERY BROWN, former bishop of Arkansas, who faces trial on the charge of heresy before dignitaries of the Episcopal church, was once tried on the same charge, but the trial ended without definite action toward excommunicating him. He resigned as bishop in 1912 on account of ill health, and has figured since chiefly as the author of "Christ and Communism." It is upon statements in this book that the heresy charges were filed against him.

DR. WILLIAM BROWN The former bishop is now 79 years old. He was born near Orrville, Wayne county, O. His education was obtained at Seabury Hall, Faribault, Minn., and at Gambier, O. He was given the degree of doctor of divinity in 1898 by Kenyon college, and again in the following year by the University of the South.

His ministerial career was begun at Gallon, O., in 1883. In 1891 he became general missionary and archdeacon of the diocese of Ohio. He went to Arkansas in 1898 as bishop coadjutor, and in 1900 was consecrated bishop.

Before he wrote "Christ and Communism" three books had appeared under his name—"The Church for Americans," "The Crucial Race Question," and "The Level Plan for Church Union."

After his resignation as bishop he returned to Gallon, O., to live, and he still resides there.

"JUST FOR THE FUN OF IT"

By ROY K. MOULTON

Why hasn't one of our ever-enterprising movie entrepreneurs signed up the much advertised T. Pott Dome? Surely the vaudeville comedians and Tim Pan Alley Beethovens and Wagners aren't going to miss the wonderful opportunities afforded by the considerable publicity given the Teapot. It is our prediction that the full force of a wave of vaudeville jokes and Teapot Dome blues will be upon us.

And the modistes who seized upon the King Tut-anthemen discoveries for dress styles ought to find some ideas in the scandal. Teapot hat ornaments and jewelry we undoubtedly will have with us this season, and oil color will be a favorite hue in the new dresses.

It is 1925. The literary censorship has been established. A petition having been submitted and properly passed on, the officer of the law designated for the purpose will now read poetry for one-half hour, as prescribed by the penal code. All minors will leave the room.

FILE RETURNS ON TIME, SAYS U. S. REVENUE

Collector Goodcell Cites Penalties for Tardiness

Taxpayers who are delaying the filing of their returns were warned yesterday by Collector of Internal Revenue Rex B. Goodcell that heavy penalties are provided by the revenue act for failure or "willful refusal" to make a required income tax return and pay the tax on time.

For failure to file a return on time a taxpayer becomes liable to a penalty of $1,000 and a further penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of the tax, unless the return is later shown and it is satisfactorily shown to the commissioner of internal revenue that the delinquency was due to a reasonable cause, and not to willful neglect. For willful refusal to make a return and pay the tax on time, a taxpayer becomes liable to a penalty of $10,000, or one year's imprisonment, or both, together with the cost of prosecution, and a penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of the tax.

Under a ruling received by Collector Goodcell, when a return is made in good faith and an understatement of the amount of the tax thereon is due to no fault of the taxpayer, no penalty attaches, but interest attaches to the amount of the deficiency at the rate of 6 per cent a year. If the understatement is due to negligence—"absence of reasonable care under the circumstances"—there is to be added 5 per cent of the total amount of the deficiency, together with interest on the amount of the deficiency at the rate of 12 per cent a year from the time the tax was due, or, if paid on the installment basis, on the deficiency on the installment from the time the installment was due.

If the understatement is fraudulent with intent to evade the tax, the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 and imprisonment for not more than one year, together with the cost of prosecution, and an added assessment of 50 per cent of the amount of the deficiency.
