PREPAREDNESS

Brown came home from the office, hung up his coat and hat, and looked around for Mrs. Brown.

"Oh, Alice!" he called, but there was no reply. He walked out to the kitchen, but she wasn't there. Then he went to the steps and called up the stairs:

"Oh, Alice!"

"Here I am, Dick," came a faint voice.

Brown went upstairs and found Mrs. Brown in a bedroom closet with her head bent over an old trunk.

"Well, what on earth are you trying to dig up out of that old trunk?" Brown demanded.

"Oh, Dick," the Mrs. answered, "do you remember where I put that picture of Aunt Alice?"

"Dick thought over the matter for a moment. Then:

"For heaven's sake!" he exclaimed. "Is she coming to see us again?"

SCHOOL NOTES

The student body realized over $10 from the Skinner lecture on Honolulu, given in the auditorium Wednesday afternoon. The money goes into the "knock-down bleacher" fund.

The A-9 English class, under the direction of Miss Conley, put on a one-act farce during assembly hour last Friday. Lorna Thistle, Iris Oliver and Esther Robertson made the dolls carried by the actors, who were in costume. The cast included Orrel Perry, Basil Brady, Glenn Clark, Howard Halliday, Don Barnett, Lambert Marks, John Siegel, and La Verne Brady.

Miss Flagg, school nurse, visited the schools Thursday.

Superintendent of Los Angeles City Schools Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey on Monday visited the various sites available for the proposed new high school buildings.

The cafeteria started off with a "bang" Monday. It is being well patronized and the students are loud in their praise of the well cooked food and generous portions that are so attractively served.

Those children who carry their lunches from home are welcome to use the tables in the cafeteria.

For the remainder of this term the rule that children may not leave the school grounds for lunch without a special arrangement between teacher and parents will not be enforced. At the beginning of the fall term, however, the rule will be rigidly adhered to, since the cafeteria will be fully equipped to cater to the entire enrollment.

OUCH!

An old lady in the London parish of the famous Doctor Gill made a nuisance of herself by constant interference in the affairs of others. As a gossip she was notorious. It appeared to her that the neckbands worn by the doctor were longer than was fitting. She therefore took occasion to visit the clergyman, and harangued him at length on the sinfulness of pride. Then she exhibited a pair of scissors, and suggested that she should cut down the offending neckbands to a size fitting her ideas of propriety. The doctor listened patiently to her exhortation, and at the end offered her the neckbands on which to work her will. She triumphantly trimmed them to her taste, and returned the shorn remnants to the minister.

"And now," said the doctor, "you must do me a good turn also." "That I will, doctor," the woman declared heartily. "What can it be?" "Well," the clergyman explained, "you have something about you which is a deal too long and which causes me and many others such trouble that I should like to see it shorter."

"Indeed, dear doctor, I shall not hesitate to gratify you. What is it? See, here are the scissors! Use them as you please."

"Come, then," said the doctor, "good sister, put out your tongue."
