

Lomita Community Church

Morning worship, 11 o'clock—"The Christian Service." Evening worship, 7:30 o'clock—"Experiments to Find Happiness." Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; L. J. Hunter, superintendent. Intermediate C. E. prayer meeting, 6:30 p. m.; topic, "What Missions Have Done for Social Welfare"; leader, Mrs. E. W. Smith.

All are cordially invited to all these services. E. E. Clark, pastor.

Lomita Gospel Mission

Rev. James Elliot, pastor. Considering the inclemency of the weather, our Thursday evening prayer service and Sunday services were well attended.

The gospel lesson Thursday evening was the 102nd Psalm.

The theme of the Sunday morning service was "The Devil's Own" (John 8:44), namely, professors who have not been converted. For, notice: our Lord in that chapter was not talking to sinners but to the Pharisees, one of the greatest religious sects of that day. The second part of the morning lesson was "God's Own," namely, those who have truly been born again, without which no man can enter into the Kingdom of God (John 3:3 to 9). God's own are both professors and possessors. Text, I Cor. 13:20.

The evening theme was "No Cross, No Crown." We must be under the blood of Christ to be on safe ground (Exodus 12:13), for without the blood there is no remission (namely, forgiveness for sin)—(Heb. 9: part of 22nd verse).

The Young People's meeting had a good attendance; leader, Olga Atkinson. Mrs. Tulp gave a splendid lesson on John 1:1 to 19. The young people are intending to give the book of John a thorough study. The triune God, consisting of three distinct Persons, yet only one God, or Godhead, is brought out in all its rich fullness in the gospel of John. We as Christians need to have a fuller understanding of these great truths. All the young people who wish to make a good, thorough study of John will do well to attend—as also older persons; they, too, can get much out of that gospel through the instructions given the young folks. All are cordially welcomed to our mission chapel.

The special preacher on Wednesday evening, the 2nd inst., will be the Very Reverend Dean MacCormack, dean of the Los Angeles cathedral. All Masons are specially invited to meet their brother, the dean, at a reception that will follow the service.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

Clyde Jones of the Lucas hotel, charged by Officer McMillan of the Torrance force and Deputy Fire Warden Charles M. Smith with impeding the progress of the Lomita fire engine, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $10.

Elmer Duncan, charged with the possession and transportation of liquor and with driving while intoxicated, received a sentence of 100 or 100 days on the first two counts. The third charge was dismissed. Duncan, under $1900 bail, gave oral notice of appeal.

Herman Rotman of Long Beach paid a fine of $25 for a violation of the motor vehicle act. While driving in excess of 15 miles per hour through the center of the town Rotman struck the machine driven by Tom Willacy, damaging it to the extent of $30.

"HARD TIMES" PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gamby entertained Saturday evening at a delightful "hard times" party. The affair, held in the former home of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Adams at Rose and Cypress streets, was attended by Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bartlett, of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beringer, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kerber, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Towne, Miss Laura Powers, and Sydney Beason.

First Baptist Church of Torrance

Rev. J. Whitfield Green, pastor.

The annual business meeting of the church will take place Friday evening. It is earnestly requested that all members attend, as there is important business to attend to.

Mr. Green will deliver the following sermons Sunday: In the morning, "Good News and Bad Conditions." The evening theme will be "World Peace: Will We Have It? The Church, The League of Nations." Can't you come and help us enjoy these sermons. People are coming from Long Beach and Hollywood to hear Mr. Green in his evangelistic sermons; and to enjoy our song service. You will be more than welcome at the home church.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 11 o'clock. B. Y. P. U., 6:45 p. m. Evening song service, 7:30. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

Christian Church

American Legion hall. W. T. Adams, pastor; Scott Ludlow, superintendent of Bible school.

The Christian church people had a splendid day last Sunday, in spite of the rain; the attendance was fine both at the Sunday school and church services. There were three additions to the church during the day, making 17 additions the last two months. But another Lord's day is approaching and, as the early disciples rejoiced when they saw the day approaching, so should we rejoice when another opportunity is given us of meeting together at the place of worship. Remember the place, American Legion hall. Bible school, 9:45 a. m. Church services, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to you and a warm welcome awaits you. Come and meet with us next Sunday.

Catholic Church

Mass will be celebrated Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.

VICE VERSA

A motorist was stopped by a policeman for speeding, whereupon he became angry and called the policeman an ass. After he had paid his fine the judge reproved him for what he had said to the officer. "Then I mustn't call a policeman an ass?" he asked. "Certainly not," said the judge. "You must not insult the police." "But you wouldn't mind if I called an ass a policeman, would you?" "Why, no, if it gives you any satisfaction," answered his honor, with a smile. The motorist turned to the man who had arrested him. "Good day, policeman," he said, as he left the courtroom. Mrs. James L. King of Arlington avenue is out again after several days' illness.
