MACCABEES IN FINE MEETING

Torrance Review Enjoys Gathering at Legion Hall Tuesday Night

The regular meeting of Torrance Review was held at Legion hall Tuesday evening. Mrs. Julia C. Ginn, deputy great commander, was present and gave an interesting talk. The time for securing the loyalty ring has been extended from July 31 to December 31, 1924; so, members, get busy.

A communication from the supreme office was read in regard to the perfect review. Points are given for opening on time, attendance of officers and members, new members, attention to new members, and so on. Let's make the goal. You need us, we need you.

Plans are going forward for the bazaar to be held later. Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber is the chairman in charge, and will be glad of your full co-operation.

Don't forget the pot luck supper July 22 at 6 p. m. Bring your lunches, your husbands, your children, your friends. After supper the orchestra has promised us music. You can dance, play cards and amuse yourselves.

After the regular meeting a jolly hour was passed in listening to experiences of earning money from a quarter. Mrs. Pomkins and Mrs. Steinhilber made the largest amounts.
